

$1,474,592 Tentative School Budget

Last Year's Total;
Hearing Is Sept. 20

The Madison board of education approved a tentative budget of $1,474,592 for the 1960-61 school year during a meeting Tuesday night, a figure $401,856 less than the 1959-60 adopted budget. Expenditures in 1959-60 have not yet been tabulated.

The decrease in the tentative budget was due largely to a $550,172 reduction in a budget item for new construction. Last year, the board budgeted $854,536 for erection of the new Blair and Harris schools, while the construction capital outlay figure in the new tentative budget is $298,364 for the completion of the Blair school.

Notable increases in the tentative budget over last year's adopted figures were in the educational fund for teachers' salaries, and in interest payments on school building bonds under the general building fund bond.

Supt. Wensel Brown said several changes will be made in tentative figures before the budget comes up for a public hearing and adoption on Sept. 20.

They probably will be in the pupil transportation cost, which appears as a part of the educational fund budget but for legal purposes is a separate item since a special transportation tax is levied by the district, and the salary increases granted teaching personnel.

The salary boosts are only an estimate, Supt. Brown said, since no teacher contracts for the coming school year have been signed and no further negotiations between the teachers' representatives and Brown are scheduled until this fall.

The budget unit is operating during the 1959-60 period totals $1,876,448, or $401,856 above the tentative total prepared and presented by Supt. Brown and adopted tentatively by the board Tuesday.

Estimated income for 1960-61 totals $1,469,504, or $468,954 less than the tentative budget. Of the income, $941,550 will be for educational purposes and $528,354 for the building fund. Estimated receipts in the educational fund were $54,909 above last year's actual income while the estimated building fund receipts show a proportional decrease and with the tentative building fund budget.

Budget Breakdown
A breakdown of the tentative budget by funds showing increases or decreases compared to last year's adopted budget, follows:

MEDIAN ROADWAY DIVIDER
A raised strip of concrete, is being installed along the middle of Broadway, as this view of the 200 and 300 blocks reveals. The divider will not appear quite as tall once a biuminuous material is applied to the surface of the Venice street, but its height and its alternate corrugated sections are expected to aid in alerting motorists if they stray out of traffic lanes. The median strip is being required by the state in highway improvements.

Swimming Classes To Start At GC Park Pool In July

Free swim classes for Granite City youngsters and an instruction class for adult women will be scheduled in July, Granite City park district commissioners decided last night, acting on a recommendation by Park Supt. H. Williams. The children's training sessions and the adult classes will be for the family program course. Regular admission fees will be charged.

Park commissioners also are considering "after hour" rental of the swimming pool for private parties. Supt. Williams was instructed to set a fee.

The swimming pool report showed 246 season tickets for the pool have been sold to date, 229 to youngsters and 17 to adults, a larger number than last year.

1100 In Pool Yesterday
Pool attendance which reached a peak of 1100 yesterday for any one day, now totals about 12,000 for the season, which was started June 11 after a brief opening for the Memorial Day weekend. This week's over 50-degree temperatures, however, increased the attendance considerably, after days of cool weather and rain marked the opening of the season.

Supt. Williams' report showed the pool receipts totaled $2632 through last Monday, while revenue from concession stands amounted to $7392 and $49 was collected from the music box on the pool pavilion.

A motion was made during last night's meeting for overall supervision of the pool to be turned over to Park District Recreation Director Harold Brown. However, the motion was withdrawn, when it was suggested by Commissioner Milton Worthen that the matter be taken up at a "special caucus meeting."

Williams was authorized to buy two umbrellas for lifeguards from the pool, and to spend $800 to install a floodlight at the wading pool and in the sunken gardens nearby. The commission was instructed to set a fee.

Auto Floor Mat Stolen
A green floor mat was stolen from the auto of a Mrs. Redwood of Elm's Trailer Court on Monday night when the car was parked at 22nd and Benton streets, it was reported to Granite City police.

4 Hubsaps Stolen

Four spinners-type hubsaps were stolen off the 1956 auto of Charles Little, 2738 State street, on Monday night when the car was parked at Nameoki road and Granite City police.

Some 250 parishioners are expected to attend a dinner at 6:15 p.m. Saturday, given by the Sacred Heart Catholic Church to mark the opening of a campaign to raise $200,000 for construction of a new school. The campaign will be conducted Sunday afternoon.

The drive is scheduled due to the school building at the present Sacred Heart grade school. The new school will open in September 1961, according to present planning, on an 11.5 acre site located on the south side of St. Clair avenue between Wayne and Dale avenues.

The parishioners, members of a committee to raise the funds, will make their own subscriptions at the dinner, held in the Sacred Heart school basement at 28th street and Jorden avenue at Masses Sunday.

Following benediction at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, members will call on their fellow parishioners seeking contributions for the new school. The group met Monday in the school basement to plan the campaign. About 85% of all calls are expected to be completed by 6 p.m. Sunday.

Building Contract Being Prepared

Nameoki Town Board
Accepts $25,925 Bid
By Local Contractor

A construction contract for the proposed new Nameoki township building is in the process of being prepared for a lease-purchase agreement to include a trade of a 125x150-foot lot the township owns on Johnson road.

Three bids for construction were opened during Tuesday evening's meeting of the town board, and the members accepted the low proposal submitted by Henry Ross, contractor, Town Atty. Nick Vasileff was instructed to prepare the contract, and if all terms are acceptable, a special meeting of the board is to be set for July 6 to sign the agreement.

The bid by Ross for the amount of $25,925, while other bids were $26,500 by Jim Frey, contractor, and $27,000 by Garlan Parless.

Along Route 165
The proposed building is to be located on township-owned property along the south side of State Route 165, several hundred feet east of the intersection with State Route 111.

It will contain three offices, 14x19 feet, 9x24 1/2 feet, 9x24 1/2 feet and a garage-storage area, 45x60 feet. Also included in the contract are two 10-foot conditioning units and fencing around the building.

Supervisor Harry Briggs said the board is hopeful the contractor will accept as partial payment, the 125x150-foot tract owned by the township in Granite City. With an unknown amount of fill, it was suggested the tract be suitable for a dividing into two lots for home building. The city of Granite City is conducting an action seeking to condemn the 32x40-foot barn on the property, which is located in the 5300 block of Johnson road.

The board set a figure of $4530 value for the property and the amount is to be set forth in the construction contract.

Cloverleaf Problem

Supervisor Briggs announced during the meeting that he will accept a proposal presented to the township by the Nickel Plate Railroad to realign the railroad tracks to the east of the cloverleaf addition of the township.

Briggs said the railroad has offered to share the cost of improving the cloverleaf and the residents present to have the property with the railroad blocked by an abandoned coal contract.

"It is likely," Briggs said, "the people will turn down the railroad proposal. We've also been working with state highway officials to get the railroad blocked by an abandoned coal contract."

$89,000 Collected At Venice Town Tax Office

Venice township tax collectors said at the $89,000 more this morning, or about 4 1/2% of the $2,014,825 scheduled for collection.

For the first three days of this week, tax payments were up to $71,154 were received. It was learned at the township tax office, 1437 Third street, that collections on the first two days of June 18 and 17, totaled $18,803.

A motion was made during last night's meeting for overall supervision of the pool to be turned over to Park District Recreation Director Harold Brown. However, the motion was withdrawn, when it was suggested by Commissioner Milton Worthen that the matter be taken up at a "special caucus meeting."

Williams was authorized to buy two umbrellas for lifeguards from the pool, and to spend $800 to install a floodlight at the wading pool and in the sunken gardens nearby. The commission was instructed to set a fee.

Venice School Board Debates

The Venice school board is debating Monday evening the purchase of a new typewriter for the Venice high school commercial department, but so far has withheld any purchase decision. Several of the board members voiced opposition at an earlier meeting to the purchase of typewriters which are manufactured outside this country, imported by American-made machines.

At Monday's meeting, Tony Mangi, proprietor of a local typewriter sales firm, together with Frank and Jack Strook of a St. Louis typewriter distributing company appeared before the board.

They asked permission to explain and demonstrate a typewriter made in West Germany and imported for sale in this country. Both typewriter firms sell the particular model in question.

During the demonstration board members and salesmen all gave vent to their feelings pro and con—concerning the marketing of purchased product, typewriters included.

School Board President Lester Salem, who said he does not favor the purchase of the foreign-made typewriters, contended that the purchase of the typewriter is not needed.

City Promises Tax Levies For 1960-61

Continue Probe
Of $1200 Church
Festival Theft

Madison police today are continuing their investigation of the theft of about $1200 in weekend church picnic receipts from St. Mary's school early Monday. The money, most of it in $1 bills, was taken from a second floor classroom where it had been placed inside a metal locker at the close of a three-day festival held on the school grounds. The loss also included some larger currency and a few half dollars and dimes.

Police have questioned a number of suspects but have filed charges as yet. It was learned that many persons visiting restrooms on the upper floor of the school had an opportunity to peek by the classroom and see picnics counting the receipts.

The theft is believed to have taken place between 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. Monday. Later in the day, it was discovered that a sack containing $200 in coins had been moved into a nearby classroom by the thief. The money, which was found away before he could remove it from the building.

A small pile of coins was found on the ground beneath a window of this room, which had not been taken by the picnic sponsor. Money not taken in the theft, consisting mostly of change, was also found on the ground.

Proceeds of the picnic were taken to a night bank depository during the weekend, including a final trip at about 11 p.m. Sunday. The picnic came to a close between 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. Monday, and the money placed in the locker included bills and coins that had been retained at concession stands.

Entrance was gained to the classroom by forcing open a window above the door and the locked door of the locker also was forced open. The money then was removed from metal boxes of the individual stands by using keys attached to the boxes.

Some of the receipts were left before the sponsors left the unlocked school building for the night, but other funds were left with tally slips due to the late hour, and it was planned to return Monday evening to complete the count.

The following are recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which they underwent Monday: Emil Damagot, 2301 Missouri avenue; Edith Elbertson, 2314 Missouri avenue; Louise Schmidt, 2205 Edwards street; Nora Moffitt, 2306 Bryant avenue; Roger Brown, 2772 Madison avenue; Henry Mingus, 1006 Washington avenue; Alex Cilandar, 2101 Devine avenue; Edward Thompson, Route Four, Edwardsville.

$20,000 For Cayuga St.

This includes a $20,000 reimbursement for the much-disputed Cayuga street, $4627 for the storm water drainage system, $1000 for the Melrose drainage system, and $1000 for the Cayuga street drainage system. The original figure of $5000 for the Cayuga street drainage system was cut to $3800 when bids for the project were received.

The new total for the special improvement section now is $28,277 instead of $20,000. Other budget changes made:

Engineering Study For Port District Ready In 4 Weeks

An engineering firm is expected to complete its four-week study in the next three or four weeks to determine the feasibility of a $100,000 development project for the Port District, it was learned today.

The firm of H. Lochner & Co., Chicago, was engaged by the port commissioners to make the study, which already has been underway about two weeks. Port Manager John Burton said the survey is expected to produce favorable results.

Arrangements were made in April with the Chicago firm of Glue, Forgan & Co. to serve as financial consultant for the port district and to supervise the first revenue bond issue.

The engineering firm is studying the growth rate of the area and the business potentials for the $100,000 development project in the north end of the Chain of Rocks canal harbor for cargo handling facilities.

The port district has announced it is negotiating with two national grain elevators and one of the harbor facilities and that a number of other companies are interested in the project.

No Need For Public Busses In This Block

Ample private transportation — 35 cars for 25 families — is available in the 2500 block of Delmar avenue, and there is "no need for public transportation," according to a petition in the possession of Mayor Davis.

Residents of the block are protesting the rerouting of Community Coach Company's East Granite — via Edwards street busses in the 2500 block.

The petition, with 47 signatures, points out there is one family with three cars and 11 families with two cars living in the block, and that with the narrowness of the street, the busses create a traffic hazard, especially for the children.

A hearing on the new bus routes is scheduled before the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 6, and during Monday night's council session, Mayor Davis, City Atty. William L. Beatty and Alderwoman Mrs. Gabrielle Bettine, chairman of the council's Public Utilities committee, were authorized to attend.

The busses are operating in the block at present under a temporary permit granted by the ICC. The change from Benton street to Delmar avenue was made after the city asked the bus company to eliminate a turn off Madison avenue at 27th street, because of the narrowness of 27th street between Madison avenue and State street and because of construction underway at 27th street and Madison avenue for the installation of traffic signals.

The bus firm rerouted the bus over 26th street to Delmar avenue and south to the downtown district. The former route was over 27th street to Benton street, south to 25th street, east to Delmar avenue and south on Delmar to the downtown district.

Price Urges Bill Barring Economic War By Dairies

There is an "urgent need" for new federal legislation to protect small local business firms from below-cost price "raids" by powerful competitors, Congressman Melvin Price (D) of this district said Monday in Washington.

Specifically, there is a need for legislation giving small local dairies legal instruments for protecting themselves against below-cost price slashing by large, well-capitalized national dairies that enter "area after area" for a short period and undercut local firms by cutting prices "below levels at which either can make a profit," Price declared.

The congressman testified before the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee on his bill to prohibit sales at such "unreasonably low prices" as would "substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly." His bill, Price said, would not outlaw "legitimate special sales in accordance with accepted practice." It would not outlaw sales below cost per se.

Monopoly Danger

His objective, he told the committee, is to give small business firms, including dairies, a defense against "certain discriminations in price and sales at below-cost rates that can properly be held to be unreasonable as tending to promote monopoly."

Under the bill, he continued, a small business firm that felt unfairly attacked would have "the right to file a civil suit in federal court for injunctive relief."

Shower Honors Miss Olga Dame

Miss Olga Dame, who will be a July bride, was complimented last night at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Norma Pregel, Mrs. Helen Redfern, Mrs. Elsie Eltheridge and Mrs. Louise Lakin at the YMCA. Approximately 55 were present.

The gift table was especially attractive with its decorations of pink and white streamers, a white wedding bell and a floral centerpiece, the whole lighted with pink candles. Favors were small net bags filled with pink and white mints to which were attached miniature gold wedding bands tied with pink ribbon. Miss Dame will become the bride and would also have the right to sue for triple damages under federal law. The Federal Trade Commission also would be given "fresh powers to take action on its own account to halt the practice of price discrimination."

Price cited hearings by a subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee in which small business firms, including dairies, were being "victimized by economic assaults."

Higher In Home Areas

He pointed to testimony by a committee investigator on so-called milk "price wars" in many southern Illinois communities, in which businessmen testified that they were "subjected to below-cost price competition from big dairies. The big dairies, he said, maintained normal prices and "made their money" in their own natural markets but "engaged in price slashing" elsewhere "that had the effect, if not the intent, of endangering the existence of small dairies."

Price said, "If their prices, he said, "just long enough to make it impossible for the small businessman to compete, they have interpreted existing law as giving the small businessman no legal recourse in filing suit against a more powerful price slashing competitor, the congressman said, and "for various reasons he cannot find quick relief from any agency of the federal government."

The answer, Price said, should be new legislation for "practical equitable and effective protection of small business."

American steel production is down, since companies in this country can import steel cheaper than it can be made here.

He quoted a leading financial paper and added that "American steel industry is down to about 90% of production capacity, which means that there are some people out of work."

Jack Stroet replied that American exports, including steel, still top imports by a sizeable majority, and gave as his reference figures released by the Department of Commerce.

"And you can't buy an 'American office machine' typewriters included — which is made entirely in this country," he added, claiming that every major manufacturer of office machines in this country maintains foreign factories.

"Refusing to purchase an item because it is imported is almost impossible today," Stroet contended, "since so many of the things we use in business and at home are imported."

He said that the typewriter he was using was made outside the country.

The question also was asked of Stroet if the typewriter his firm handled was to be sold cheaper than a "comparable" American model. He answered in the negative, saying that the machine was imported to "undercut the American market."

Returning to the subject of business machines, Stroet said approximately 60% of them are made either partially or wholly outside this country, imported and then sold under American brand names.

Board Member Thomas Foley replied: "I don't believe it, but think you're wrong and I still think that 80% to 90% of the machines are made in this country."

Mangi said the school board should not ignore the typewriter when it decides to seek bids on typewriter purchases, but "should not consider where the machine is made, but the quality of the equipment and how well it will stand up in the classroom."

Salem replied that "our teachers do not want American typewriters in question, to which Mangi answered: "But you only have one of the units in Venice High school now, and it's out of place by itself." He added that another local high school has 28 of the units, and that they may be found in 65 high schools in the St. Louis area.

The school board took no further action on typewriter purchases.

Five Fined For Beating Man; Jail Term For Foster

Five Quad-City youths and men pleaded guilty to reduced charges of assault and were fined $100 and costs each Monday by Circuit Judge Harold R. Clark. A similar charge against a sixth defendant is pending.

Mathews Sweeps Twin Bill From Collinsville; Sparks, Takmajian, Holder Shine

A sweep of a doubleheader in Collinsville Tuesday evening boosted Mathews Chevrolet American Legion Post 113's entry in the 22nd district baseball race, to the 500 mark as timely hitting and excellent pitching paid off in 6-1 and 5-3 wins over the host team.

Joe Holder won his second game of the season for Mathews in the opener, allowing only three hits and losing his shutout when a leadoff walk in the sixth inning came back to haunt him.

Grant Takmajian capped a happy evening for the local players in the second game, which was played under the lights at Fletcher field, tossing a four-hitter at Collinsville.

Post 113 got out ahead quickly in the first game, scoring three runs in the first inning off starter and loser Jerry Gargino. Dave "Spunky" Sparks opened the game with a triple and scored on Pat Schumann's ground out. Ken Cook walked, took third on Takmajian's single and scored on the pitcher's swipe of second. Another walk, this one to Larry Covey, set up Larry Melton's sacrifice fly, and Mathews had all it needed to win.

A walk and a hit batsman combined with two infield outs produced a single marker in the fourth.

Sparks, who had four hits, including three triples in his best day at the plate, bounced a shot off the wall in the sixth to score Tony Mancos, who had walked, and Holder, who had doubled for his first hit of the season.

Holder struck out five and walked three. Gargino gave up seven hits, but was bothered by the second as he walked six and hit two.

The second game began much as the first, with Mathews scoring twice during the first at-bat. With one out, Schumann doubled off Fred Riddle. Takmajian, batting in the cleanup position, was hit by a pitch and Melton followed with a single to score one. A ground out got runner No. 2 across the plate. A walk and an error got the third Post 113 run across in the third.

Collinsville tied the score on only two hits in the home half of the fifth. Two walks, a single by Rich Krietenmeyer and a triple by Bob Simpson did the trick.

Sparks tripled again for Mathews in the seventh after Dave Sues had led off with a three-base hit and scored on Mancos' follow-up double. A double in the bottom of the seventh by Collinsville was wasted.

The Granite City squad had only six hits in the second game, but four of them went for extra bases. Of the 13 safe blows put together by Mathews in the twin-bill, nine went for two or more bases.

Bunk Whiffs 15 In Perfect Game Tuesday

Pitcher Don Bunk of the St. Mary's Saints, members of the St. Mary's league in the Atom Division of the Madison Khoury League, had the distinction of pitching the first perfect game of the season Tuesday night, and with the help of his teammates it added up to a spectacular accomplishment.

Bunk faced the minimum number of batters — 15 — in the five-inning game as the Saints downed the St. Mary's Angels on the second street diamond in Madison by a 3-0 count.

There were no putouts made on the infield or in the outfield.

—None were necessary since Bunk struck out every batter he faced.

Deprived of displaying any defensive talent they might have, the Saints retaliated by flobbering a total of 11 home runs, a record total as far as anyone associated with the league since its beginning can remember.

Bunk had two himself, as did John Papa and John Poulos, while Stan Sobolewski, David Timko, Jim Dittman, Al Hudzik and Leonard Fowler had to settle for one homer each.

Hitters Feast In Baptist League Games Tuesday

A total of 61 runs were scored in two Baptist softball league games Tuesday night at Lee Park in Venice as batters fattened up to the dismay of pitchers.

Grace Baptist Church remained on top of the seven-team loop with a 22-15 win over Calvary, while Meadow Heights kept its position as runner-up by downing Emmanuel Baptist 15-8.

Ten of Grace Baptist's 24 hits went for extra bases, and included three doubles by Jack Logan, home runs by Don Crain, winning pitcher Rich Horn and Bob Marland, two doubles and a triple by Jim Roller and a three-base hit by Marj Millikin.

Calvary managed 19 hits, including a round-tripper by catcher Gary Harris, who also had a double and triple, two doubles by Wayne Bryant and Bill Peterson, a triple by loser Don Miller and a two-base knock by Virgil Harris.

Jerry Baumann clouted a three-run homer for Meadow Heights to lead a 15-hit attack by the winners of the first game, and Jim Cliff duplicated the feat, also for Meadow Heights, which scored eight runs in the first inning. Bud Martin had a pair of doubles for the winners. Bill Randolph was the winning pitcher.

A double by George Castleman and a triple by Ray Smith were Emmanuel's only extra-base blows. Jerry Bergman started went one inning for Emmanuel

Postmen, A. O. Smith Top Opponents In 'Y' Industrial Play Wednesday

The Granite City Post Office, with Jake Hinterser blasting a three-run home run, topped Granite City Steel Co. 12-8 last night in the YMCA Industrial Softball League. The Post Office remained undefeated and stretched its lead to two games over the remainder of the teams in the loop.

A. O. Smith Corp. won its first game of the season in other league action at Lee Park in Venice, squeezing past Union Star and Refining Co. in the first game, 9-8.

Bill Wise started on the hill for the Postmen, giving way to Carol Tingley in the fourth. Paul Etherton went the distance for GC Steel and hit a homer in a losing cause. Len Cook also connected for the circuit for the Steel Co. Etherton had three hits and Fred Cavin two for the losers, while Bill Crabtree doubled for the Post Office and brother Don had two base hits. John Lapinski gave up eight hits in a complete-game winning effort on the mound for A. O. Smith. He had two of his squad's five safeties and scored three runs.

Witness by Union Star's starter Durrell Pirtle in the early innings led to the Smith win. Eight A. O. Smith batters drew free passes, and Pirtle was relieved by Oren Harrison after getting one out in the fourth.

Pirtle homered while he was in the ballgame, and teammate Ray Mercer rapped a brace of doubles. Jasper Chastain also had two hits for the losers. Ben Powers played the role of lead-off batter for A. O. Smith perfectly, getting on base everytime he batted, once on a single.

The Postmen now boast a 3-0 won-lost record, while GC Steel, Union Star and A. O. Smith are each 1-2. Next Wednesday, Union Star will play GC Steel at 6:30 p.m., while the Postmen and A. O. Smith will tangle in the 8:30 p.m. game.

Rochester, capital of photography and flowers, has 1,500 industries, but the tourist magnet is the one founded by George Eastman, and his 50-room mansion now is a museum of the art and science of photography, old and new. Another delight is the Highland Botanical Gardens, a fragrant summer-long show that starts with the blossoming of some 1,400 lilac bushes of 450 exotic varieties.

The Magic Circle auto trip out of Rochester and through the Finger Lakes area can be planned the same way you would map out a tour from your own home town. South at Pifford is the Trappist Monastery, noted for the delicious bread baked by the monks; the magnificent Seneca River gorge—called the "Grand Canyon of the East," Hammondsport wineries, Corning's internationally famous Glass Center and Elmira, "Glider Capital of the World." Driving north, there is the two-mile chasm of Watkins Glen, where beautiful Cornell University perches "high above Cayuga's waters"; and Tannock Falls, higher than Niagara. The scenic route of color from June until frost; and the famed moon shines at Palmyra.

Exterminator, Pals Win Class 'B' Contests

The Pals picked up their first win in the park district's Class "B" Softball League Tuesday night behind the four-hit pitching of Mike Schuler, and Modern Exterminators kept rolling along in the same loop as they made only four hits good for six runs to win the second game.

The Pals topped winless Granite City Steel Credit Union 5-3, breaking a 3-3 tie in the bottom of the seventh inning when they bunched three of their nine hits and a sacrifice fly for the deciding run.

Paul Etherton started for the Credit Union, and was relieved by Carol Tingley, who was charged with the loss.

Modern Exterminator crowded all of its hitting and scoring into the second and third innings in the nightcap to hang a 6-4 loss on Moose Club 272.

Evans Mank started for the winners and got credit for the victory, but was replaced in the third by Howard Baschhoff. Mank out-hit his opponent 6-4, but the winners got a homer off the bat of Jim Pointer in the third. Cotton Singler was the loser.

'Jitterbugs' Kick Off 4-Day Park Festival

A jitterbug contest and scavenger hunt will be included in activities at the informal street dance July 1 which kicks off the four-day Fourth of July celebration sponsored by the Granite City park district. Site of the dance is the corner of 29th and State streets.

Russ Carter, master of ceremonies of the St. Louis Hop, will be guest emcee at the dance, which will get under way at 7:30 and last till around 10.

Carter will be handing out LP record albums and 45-records during the evening, as prizes. Jitterbuggers will go through the r's paces to music by Walt Aerie starting about 8:15, with a trophy awaiting the winning couple. Other jitterbug finalists will be presented with record albums. A lead-the-hand contest, with members of the audience trying their skill as band directors, will also result in an album for someone.

Still in the planning stage is a scavenger hunt, to be held in Wilson Park. Participants will comb the area for, say, buttons—and each finder can exchange the button for a 45-record. All-things objects will be hidden at eye level or lower and only on the grounds away from buildings or gardens, only one record will be given each finder regardless of the number of buttons recovered.

Aside from jitterbugging, dancers will also have opportunity to try their wings with the Mexican hat dance, bunny hop, stroll, hokie-pokie and others. In event of rain, the dance will shift to the park pavilion.

Three local businessmen will serve as judges at the contest phase, and will announce the winner and runners-up immediately afterwards. No advance registration is needed to compete.

Also featured during the holiday weekend at Wilson Park are an hour-long fireworks display, a talent show and the Miss Granite City contest.

Miss Illinois competition, Carnival rides and home-operated concession stands will be set up in the 29th street park area July 1-4.

Proceeds will be used by the park district to purchase new equipment for neighborhood playgrounds.

Madison Teachers Submit Revised Salary Proposal

A revised wage increase proposal from members of Local 763, American Federation of Teachers, has been received by the Madison board of education. The suggested wage schedule shows some increases over the teachers' original proposal in the non-degree and short term service areas, but is much closer to wage increases offered by the school district in other areas.

In all instances, the teachers' salary increase requests are either equal to or above those settled for recently by Granite City teachers after a brief strike.

The teachers are now asking a starting wage for non-degree teachers of $482 per month, as compared to an earlier proposal of $477. The school board has offered $476 a month, while Granite City teachers settled for $416 a month in 1960-61, the first year of a two-year contract.

In the 13th year of non-degree teachers, the local is asking $635, as compared to an earlier request of $611 and the board's offer of $622. Granite City teachers in the same category will earn $605 a month.

The teachers are asking $26 a month above current Granite City salaries in their requests for increases in the first year for bachelor and master degree holders and for teachers with 20 years in addition to their masters degrees.

Closer To Offer
However, in the 13th year of service in those categories, Local 763' latest proposal is much closer to what the school board had originally offered and well below the initial wage increase request.

No Meetings Until Fall
No action was taken on the proposal by board members Tuesday night. The latest request was filed, and Supt. Brown said he has no further meetings with the teachers' committee set until next fall.

The teachers' proposal states that their latest schedule proposal would result in an increase in salaries of $30,500 over last year's wages. Yearly increments will add an additional $4609.

Currently, the teachers' proposal is $16,200 above the total wage increases offered by the Madison school board.

Vandals Breaking Old Blair School Windows
A grade school building scheduled to be torn down is being visited often by boys who are breaking out windows by throwing rocks, Venice police were informed at 5 p. m. Tuesday by guards at the nearby Dow Metal Products Co. and residents of the area.

The Blair building at College and Meredocia streets is to be replaced by a new school which is nearing completion at the same school site. Almost every window in the old structure has been broken, the police report showed.

Breakdown Causes Meal To Fly At Union Starch

A breakdown in the mechanism of a cyclone collector on the slutter dryer at Union Starch & Refining Co. about 2 a. m. today virtually covered the residential area near the plant with fine meal.

John J. McBride, vice-president and manager of the plant, said steps were taken as quickly as possible to repair the mechanism and halt the loss of the meal. He said the electrical warning device also failed. The meal was blown out the stack and around the neighborhood.

The manager added that a new $25,000 collecting apparatus is in the process of being installed and the work is being speeded.

The plant was flooded with complaints this morning, a result of the deluge of the meal.

The 18th anniversary of the Granite City Engineer Depot will be celebrated July 30 with a picnic on the depot grounds. A highlight of the program will be a coronation ceremony for a new depot queen, according to John Katzman, chairman of the arrangement committee. Mrs. Sharon St. Ivany, a depot civilian employee, is the retiring queen.

Katzman said five candidates for the queen title have been selected or nominated by employees and military personnel. The nominees are—Miss Donna Sheridan, nominated by the Box and Crate Shop; Storage Division; Miss Thelma Dugan, nominated by the Depot Property Branch; Miss Nancy Rieken, nominated by the Storage Division; Miss June Heth, nominated by the Review and Analysis and the Communications branches; and Miss Gaven Kelton, nominated by the 553rd Engineer Group (M&S).

Miss Sheridan is the daughter of CWO and Mrs. Henry Sheridan of the 138th Engineer Co., Miss Kelton is the daughter of SFC and Mrs. George E. Kelton, 574th Engineer Co., and the other three candidates are civilian employees.

To gain the title of queen, a candidate must sell tickets to the picnic. The contest will run until July 20, but announcement of the winner will not be made until a few minutes before the actual coronation ceremony on July 30.

Suit Will Test City Liquor Control Law, Mayor Says

Mayor Davis and City Atty. William L. Beatty were given permission by the Granite City council Monday night to answer a mandamus suit filed last week in the circuit court at Edwardsville by Mrs. Lottie Postar, who is seeking a city license to open a package liquor store on the northwest corner of Nameok road and St. Clair avenue.

Mayor Davis asked the council for permission to enter into the suit, pointing out it would be an opportunity to test the city ordinance which requires a distance of 1000 feet between retail liquor outlets.

"They think they're right," the mayor commented, "and they're entitled to go to court to prove it."

Alderman Charles Meyer told the council that Mrs. Postar and her husband, Joseph, who operate the Sinitur Post's tavern in the downtown district, are residents of his ward and he could see no reason for the city to deny them a license to go into the package liquor business. "I think the council is doing them an injustice," he said.

Mrs. Postar is asking the circuit court to command Mayor Davis, as city liquor commissioner, to approve her application for operation of a package liquor store.

"The present city liquor control ordinance does not set classes

Mrs. Elena Ortiz, 55, Dies Following Stroke

A Granite City resident of 30 years, Mrs. Elena Garcia Ortiz, 55, of 1734 Poplar street, died following a stroke at 5:30 a. m. Tuesday.

For liquor business and states there must be 1000 feet distance between any new liquor business and an existing tavern. The Postar's location is within 1000 feet of the Rose Bowl restaurant, which operates a bar.

Several weeks ago, an amendment to the liquor law was submitted to the council by Mayor Davis to establish classes of taverns—regular taverns, package liquor stores and private clubs—and to exclude package liquor stores from the 1000-foot limit, and setting their annual license fee at $400, which is $100 higher than the $300 fee for a tavern. The amendment was voted down by the council.

City Returns Truckload Of Fireworks To Owner

A truckload of fireworks, worth $100, was returned to the owner this week by Granite City police who instructed the man to take them out of the area.

Police Chief William Willard, said state and federal authorities were contacted to determine what should be done with the fireworks, which were being stored in a vault at the city hall. They didn't want them and neither did the city, so the owner was told he had better get them out of town and even out of Illinois or he might get in trouble again," Chief Willard said.

The owner, John Ribbons, 25, of Phillipsburg, Kane, was arrested last Friday afternoon in the vicinity of Wilson Park and was fined $100 on a charge of illegal possession of fireworks. He was reported to have been selling the fireworks to children.

Says Average Homes Produce 'Kiss of Death' Awaits Nominee, GC Rotarians Told

Most Juvenile Delinquents

There was a time when most cases of juvenile delinquency originated among the middle class, but the majority of cases today come from among children with average or above average intelligence who are raised in average income homes, Mrs. Marian Mead Kirby, director of the Coordinated Youth Services office, told Granite City Kiwanis Monday evening.

Mrs. Kirby, whose office is concerned with the rehabilitation of young delinquents from the Quad-Cities area listed six direct causes for delinquency among children which she said account for the more than 600,000 cases reported annually in this country.

They included: the child's lack of satisfaction from wholesome activities, a poor child-parent relationship, lack of parental interest in the child and his activities, overindulgence by parents, chronic alcoholism among parents and the fact that some parents do not even want their children.

Mrs. Kirby, who has been director of the CYS office here since 1949 said that the overall situation - parent environment needs rehabilitation. Some parents give up too easily, while others threaten too much. Prevention is a lack of respect by the parents for children, and the opposite is also true, she said.

1515 Problem Age

The CYS director said local cases of delinquency, the greater part of them involving children between the ages of 13 and 15, come to the attention of her office upon referral by the departments, parents, neighbors, schools and the children themselves.

Some children are intelligent enough to realize when they are in trouble themselves, she pointed out, and seek help from CYS when none is available at home or elsewhere.

Other agencies, including the YMCA, scout groups, schools and churches, are sometimes able to offer the child in trouble the help he or she needs, the director continued.

Once a case has been referred to her office, Mrs. Kirby said the youngster (boys outnumber girls by a large majority) receives personal counseling.

A man without a vote might well play the biggest role of all in determining the next President. His name is Nikita Khrushchev, whose expected endorsement of a candidate as Communist is the kiss of death to either of the two Illinois training schools.

So John J. McBride, vice-president of Union Street and Refining Co., told a meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club held Tuesday at the YMCA as he spoke on "National Conventions." Some Rotarians attended the meeting along with several visitors.

McBride said he expects a statement to be made by the Russian premier shortly after the conventions are held next month. He pointed out that Adlai Stevenson, if he should be nominated, might be stoned to death politically because of a previous endorsement by Khrushchev. "If the Democratic party plays it smart, they'll avoid any such endorsement," the executive said.

Only in America

As for the conventions, McBride described them as the place where candidates are chosen. He said that in America, at a political convention can kind of house and battle he carried off, he said, but unfortunately many people fail to realize how few countries have this privilege.

"This year the convention will be historic," McBride explained. "The amendment will go into effect for the first time. The amendment, passed in 1951, limits presidential terms to not more than two terms in office. McBride pointed out that Eisenhower will be the first president to run for a third term.

But this might result in criticism later, McBride said, on the grounds that the amendment was passed in haste and emotion.

As for the conventions, McBride said he expects a statement to be made by the Russian premier shortly after the conventions are held next month. He pointed out that Adlai Stevenson, if he should be nominated, might be stoned to death politically because of a previous endorsement by Khrushchev. "If the Democratic party plays it smart, they'll avoid any such endorsement," the executive said.

and seats up to 22,400, lack of air conditioning and other facilities should add up to much discomfort, the executive continued.

Key men expected to have political influence at the convention, according to McBride, are in the case of Democrats Kennedy of Massachusetts, Symington of Missouri, Humphrey of Minnesota, Johnson of Texas, Stevenson of Illinois, Brown of California, Rayburn of Georgia, Nixon of New Jersey, Russell of Michigan, DeSalle of Ohio and Truman of Missouri; Williams of Michigan, DeSalle of Ohio and Truman of Missouri; Williams of Michigan, DeSalle of Ohio and Truman of Missouri.

Rockefeller's Criticism

Referring to New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller's harsh criticism of what he called Nixon's haziness on national issues, McBride said he thought it might be a political gimmick to stir Republicans out of a state of complacency rather than a bonafide issue.

Reasons for his belief, McBride contended, were that Nixon apparently has the nomination "sewed up" regardless of what he might be charged with.

As for John Kennedy's chances, the leftist rioting in Japan would probably hurt them at the convention, McBride hinted. Now that the importance of having a "strong man" in office was gravely pointed out to Americans, Kennedy's relative youth and U. S. Senate-limited experience might seem inadequate to many people.

McBride said he thought the Republicans with Chicago's International Amphitheatre as site for their July 25 convention had far the most comfortable location. Seating capacity of the indoor arena is 13,000.

Democrats Face Discomfort

Although the new sports arena will be in Los Angeles which Democrats will utilize July 11 cost $5 million.

Ralph St. Residents Told Improvement 'Year Away'

A delegation of Ralph street residents was told by Granite City council members that installation of curbs along the two-block long street probably could not be carried out until next year, because of the length of time required for state approval on projects to be financed with motor fuel tax funds.

Several persons in the group, disgruntled over the delay, said they had lived along the street for two or more decades and pointed out it was among the oldest subdivisions in the city.

One man told council members that if nothing was done immediately, "we'll do something about it." He was invited to "do it," as council members pointed out, nothing could speed action by the state.

The group was told the project has been referred to the city engineer along with several other streets slated for improvement in the near future. Council members also pointed to a number of street projects now underway in the East Granite area and the need to do work in other sections of the city.

Another of the delegation called attention to the $20,000 improvement project included in the proposed new budget for Cuyaga street, and the unusual procedure being used to speed the work there.

An explanation was offered that the special improvement project is to be financed with sales tax funds and was removed from the street department's section of the budget to reduce the operating costs of the department.

The residents petitioned the city to improve the street from 27th to 29th street. A woman in the delegation said the center of the roadway is higher than the sidewalks and causes drainage problems.

Mayor Davis assured the group a resolution would be presented to the council for the improvement, but the residents were told by Sup't. of Streets William Warfield that it was unlikely the work could be undertaken this year.

Homecoming Association Makes Plans For 1960

The Venice Homecoming Association board of directors made plans for the 1960 homecoming festival in August Tuesday evening at the Venice city hall, with the president, Dan McGee, in charge.

Mrs. Jackie Leatherman, a homecoming board member and representative of the Venice Junior Service club, announced that the club again will have charge of candidates for the "Miss Venice" contest. A parade will not be held this year.

Henry McMullen was appointed as purchasing agent to replace William Boerkeel, who has served in that capacity for several years.

William Ebersold and McGee were named to study the razing of a frame structure in the 200 block of Broadway owned by the association. Notice will be served on the tenants. This is to conform with a cleanup campaign headed by Mayor John E. Lee to further improve the city.

The next meeting will be held at the Venice city hall July 12 at 8 p. m. Others attending the meeting were Mrs. Ann Harden, Mrs. Creola Warmhoff and Thomas Foley, Jack Vessant, Willis Blades, Merle Cooper, Bernard Anderson, Alfred Face and Marion Groshong.

Stop Signs, 30-Minute Parking Zones Proposed

A stop sign, two 30-minute parking zones and a fire hydrant installation were proposed during Monday night's meeting of the Granite City council.

The nine aldermen present also voted down a request for a non-resident to tap onto the Namecki sanitary sewer line, turned down a map revision proposal and gave permission to a resident to paint his home, which is outside the house numbers on curbs.

Alderman Arthur Wicker asked for stop signs to be located on 16th street at State street, the scene of several recent traffic accidents. He pointed out a study would be needed to place the sign to control eastbound traffic on 16th street, since a railroad track parallels the roadway and the crossing is at the State street intersection.

A suggestion was made by Alderman Samuel Whitmer, chairman of the Street and Alley Committee, that Terminal Railroad Association officials be notified that the crossing is rough and in need of repairs.

An ordinance is to be prepared for the stop signs, and another for the 30-minute parking zones—on the east side of Madison avenue north of 30th street and on the west side of Madison avenue north of 21st street. Both are to be established to furnish customer parking areas for commercial establishments.

The new fire hydrant is to be located at 2820 Lincoln avenue.

A proposal by the Sanborn Map Co. to bring up to the city the city's property map was turned down. The city's property map
Stevens reported he had conferred with City Treasurer
Townsley Collector Frank Surpington and learned the work was "not worth" the $80 cost.

Permit is planned for Saturday at 10:00 a.m. at the intersection of 16th street and State street, to make a house-to-house
census soliciting jobs of painting house numbers on the face of curbs. It was explained the work would be done by the city and the local Graham's Book store.

The numerals are to be black and three inches high on a white background, five inches high.
A letter was received from members of Grace Baptist Church on Edwards street, thanking the city for installing new sidewalks in front and on the side of the new church building.

City Bill List Totals $36,784 For Two Weeks

A bill list totaling $36,784 was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. The listing included items for two weeks operation and payments of motor fuel tax funds for two street projects.

The only item discussed from the four-page listing was the purchase of a $525 stove for the new fire station. Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman of the Finance committee, said the stove was purchased by the firemen who will repay the city either the entire amount or any portion the city deems necessary.

He explained that the fire department could repay the city from its 2% commission fund on foreign fire insurance, but that the fund was depleted at present.

"Could Have Been Cheaper"
Fire Chief Elijah King said, "We possibly could have bought a cheaper stove, but we're glad to pay for it when the money comes in." He added that the department spent over $1800 from the fund to buy new beds for the new fire station.

It was suggested that perhaps bids could be sought for such purchases in the future.

Payments on motor fuel tax projects were $16,438 to A. H. Seeholm for the completed work on Sheridan avenue and $6164 to C. H. Sternberg & Co. for completed work on Myrtle avenue.

Bills for street materials such as shot, sand, concrete, asphalt and miscellaneous supplies amounted to $3549; while the cost of maintaining the city's motor vehicles in the two-week period totaled $1881. Gasoline, oil and grease costs amounted to $773.

$270 For Weed Cutting
Weed cutting costs, at the rate of $2.95 a lot, amounted to $270, paid to Leo Kamadulski; while Melvin Rashea was paid $733 for maintenance of the city dumping grounds during June.

A total of $1624 was paid Wood River Printing & Publishing Co. for 1000 copies of the city's new municipal code, and $20 was paid to Gabriel & Dulseroff, architects, for inspecting the city hall roof.

Expense allowances included on the bill list were — $50 for Civil Defense Director Victor Koenig; $50 for Alderman Paul Rutledge; $30 for Alderman Rufus LeMaster; $30 for Alderman Samuel Whilmer; $30 for Alderman Frank Nemeth; $60 (two months) for Alderman Samuel Shackerford; $30 for Alderman Emerald Daves and $20 paid to Mayor Davis for a trip to Springfield to the Federal Housing office.

A payment of $1508 to the U. S. Treasurer as the city's share of the cost of operation of the city pumping station during May also was made.

Thomas, who has been a member of the department for four years and three months, was presented with a transistor radio by the members of the department.

Principal for Blair School Named; Harris Job Unfilled

The Madison school board employed a principal for one of the new grade schools which will open in the school district this fall, but tabled any action on the hiring of a principal for the second school.

Richard L. Spillers, currently speech correctionist at the Blair and Dunbar schools in Madison, was named as principal of the Blair school. He was selected by the board upon Supt. Wensel Brown's recommendation from a list of five applicants for the position.

Spillers has been employed in the Madison school system for the past 11 years. He received his bachelor degree from Eastern Illinois University and his master's from the University of Indiana State Teachers College, both in elementary education.

The position of principal for the new Harris school remains vacant, although eight applicants, all of them from teaching personnel currently in the Madison schools, were received and action on filling the position was postponed until the next regular meeting.

Supt. Brown said he would fill the speech correctionist position vacancy left by Spillers' employment in time for the fall term this year.

Also hired from among a list of 16 applicants was Benjamin F. Honorable, who will begin his duties as head custodian at the new Blair school on the beginning of the fall term.

School Dedications

The board authorized the superintendent and school board Attorney Austin Lewis to proceed with arrangements for formal dedication programs at the two new schools, either in late October or early November of this year.

This architect Virgil Dulgeroff, who submitted a construction program report on the two buildings, requested and was granted permission to investigate the cost of refinishing a new Blair school in which old Harris school, and the mounting of the bell above a solar screen.

Soloists To Be Featured In First Park Concert

Seven vocal soloists will take part in the Granite City park district's first "Music Under the Stars" concert of the summer, scheduled for 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the 27th street and Delmar avenue entrance to Wilson Park, musical director Warren Simpkins said today.

RICHARD L. SPILLERS, a member of the Madison school system teaching staff for the past 11 years, who was employed as principal of the new Blair school Tuesday night by the Madison board of education.

The bell bears an 1893 casting date, and weighs an estimated 1200 to 1400 pounds. It is made of brass.

Heating Unit Not Delivered

Dulgeroff reported "satisfactory" progress with the new school construction, but told the board that some difficulty was being experienced with a firm which has a contract for building and delivery of room heating units for the schools.

The delivery deadline has passed, Dulgeroff said, and he added that he was unable to contact representatives in the firm's St. Louis offices as to the reason for the delay.

The architect reported that he placed a telephone call to the firm's office in Kentucky in an effort to expedite shipment and spoke with the company and Supt. Brown said he would make a special trip to the firm's Kentucky headquarters if the matter had not been cleared up to the architect's satisfaction this week.

GC Tax Payments Total $528,422

Over a quarter-million dollars in tax payments was received this week by Granite City Township Tax Collector Frank Sapington, boosting the total since the collection was started on June 7 to $528,422.

The tax bill for township property owners this year is $5,252,991, up $581,297 from last year. Payments made during the first three days this week amounted to $280,323, including taxes paid by the A. O. Smith Corp. and Nestle Co. plants. The peak day for collections was yesterday, when the amount received at the tax office in the city hall was $173,127.

An initial distribution of new tax money to local taxing agencies was made this week by City Comptroller John Doobier, who sent a check for $10,000 to the Granite City park district.

Select Name

Mrs. Hoese is the former Jeanette Clow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clow, 3005 Denver street. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hoese of Edwardsville, are the paternal grandparents.

Justices To Consider New Election System

To "hash over" problems relating to the new state statute governing their positions, the county board of supervisors' legislative committee decided at yesterday's meeting to hold a session next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the county courthouse in Edwardsville, with all the county justices of the peace and constables in attendance.

The law adopted by the Illinois General Assembly provides for election of justices of the peace and constables in counties on a district basis, instead of by townships as in the past. Tuesday night's meeting also is expected to consider the number of justices of the peace to be chosen for each district, the officer's salaries and establishment of district boundary lines. It was decided at yesterday's two-hour meeting to meet soon with members of the St. Louis Bar Association for assistance in the new project, since St. Louis county has had in operation for several years a system similar to the one proposed here.

The legislative committee is comprised of Orville Oglesby, Wood River Township; Harry A. Briggs, Nameoli, chairman; F. N. Johannsmeier, New Douglas; T. W. Francis, Granite City; and Robert M. Miller, Alton.

Soloists To Be Featured In First Park Concert

Also appearing on the Tuesday evening program will be a 50-voice chorus under the direction of Simpkins. They will present "It's a Most Unusual Day" from "Oklahoma!" an Appalachian folk song entitled "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair," "June is Bustin' Out All Over" from "Carousel," and "A Tribute to Romberg" in the form of a collection of songs from the composer's many operettas.

Master of ceremonies for the opening concert will be Al Stephens Jr., announcer for an East St. Louis radio station, who has been a pianist for the program is Miss Phyllis Stout, Southern Illinois University art major.

The concert, first of three to be presented under the sponsorship of the Granite City park district this summer, is open free of charge to the public.

SIU Gets $397,000; Will Be Used For Land

Gov. William G. Stratton has released $397,000 to the Southern Illinois University board of trustees from funds appropriated by the 71st General Assembly in 1959.

The released funds, part of an appropriation "frozen" earlier by Stratton, will be used to purchase property for additional classrooms and offices adjacent to land already owned by the university.

MADISON SCHOOL MOSAICS are being installed at the new Harris and Blair schools. Networks of colorful inlaid-square tiles will depict nursery rhyme themes of each of six drinking fountains at Harris and Blair. Pete Jellen, superintendent of the two construction projects, is shown inspecting a completed mosaic "Humpty Dumpty" at the Blair building.

Humpty Dumpty Gets New Life At Madison Schools

Humpty Dumpty will sit on a wall in the new Blair and Harris schools in Venice and Madison when they open next September, but there's not much chance of the unstable fellow ever falling off.

Along with five other nursery figures of mosaic tile being installed in the two schools, Humpty will adorn a recessed wall at a drinking fountain — in each building.

The figures, prefabricated at a factory, were assembled on the spot by workmen using a sketch and following a number code.

Other figures comprised of a variety of color shades are "cock robin," an "Alaskan fisherman," a "Chinese boy in rice paddy," "the frog he would a 'woosing go,'" and Columbus' ships, the "Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria." Although nothing unheard of in modern school design, Archi-

CHURCH REMODELING is in progress at the First Baptist Church of Madison. A new brick outer wall is being constructed to make the concrete block structure harmonize with the brick educational building to the far right, and the auditorium is being extended 16 feet to the sidewalk on Fifth street (left), enabling seating to be increased by 100. An unusual vestibule with three glass walls is to be built on the Algon Avenue side (right). A scheduled for completion this fall, the $50,000 improvement program also will include interior remodeling, new seats and a new pupil. General Contracting Co. is performing the construction work.

Madison School Salaries; Bills $226,606 For May

The Madison school board approved a total of $226,606 in bills and salaries for the month of May during a meeting Tuesday night in the offices of Supt. of Schools Wessell Brown. The figure included a $133,138 payment on the 1959 building bond issue fund.

Salaries approved for payment included $37,974 for instruction, $4361 for janitors, $287 for health service, $1248 for clerical work, $409 for attendance, $137 for legal purposes and $3024 for "cold" pay.

Educational fund bills totaled $40,195, building fund bills $2317, and school lunch fund bills $3502.

The superintendent called for bids on coal for heating purposes, and noted that since two new schools in the district will be using coal next winter, one single price will be asked from companies bidding on the heating contracts.

Nameoki Tax Collection At 68%, Ends July 2nd

Collection of Nameoki township property taxes for 1959 will continue at the home of Collector Harold Massa, 3200 Harvard avenue, State Park Place through July 2, it was announced today.

Of the total $657,760 tax bill about 68% ($450,014.96) was collected through yesterday. After the collection office closes, the books will be returned to the county treasurer's office at Edinboro.

Per a division meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards, Supt. Brown and Board Member William Schrieber were authorized to attend a southwest-

Auto Backs Into Girl, Woman Hurt In Crash

Janet Cox, 15, daughter of Russell Cox, 2800 Washington avenue, suffered injuries to her left hip and hand Monday afternoon when she was walking north on the sidewalk in the 2300 block of Madison Avenue and was hit by an auto which was being backed out of a driveway.

The girl was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital for emergency treatment and x-rays and was referred to her family physician. Police said the car was being operated by James Frangoulis, 22 of 2300 Delmar avenue. Minor scratches were suffered Monday afternoon by Mrs. Helen Bernatx, 52, of 2305 East 27th street, who was a passenger in an auto involved in an accident at 23rd and Iowa streets.

Police said Charles L. Bernatx, 19, of the same address was driving the auto, while the other auto was being driven by William Wnekowski, 35, of St. Louis, who was charged with failure to yield right-of-way. He posted $16 cash bail.

According to the report, the Bernatx auto was traveling north on Iowa street, while the St. Louisan was traveling west on 23rd street.

MORE ABOUT City Promises Tax Cut

Monday night, subject to approval when the budget is submitted for final adoption, increased the total for the fire department to $364,451 with the addition of $4620 for 10-month salary for an extra fireman and $190 for a new power mower for the new fire station.

Other Adjustments
The street department budget also was increased, going from $328,879, up slightly by $1015 to $329,894, to include $600 for purchase of a used truck and $415 salary adjustment for one employee.

Purchase of a new jeep for insect spraying increased the proposed $147,459 budget for the sanitation department by $1400 to $148,859.

Mayor Davis urged immediate adoption of the revised budget, but as only nine of the city's 16 aldermen were present the session decided to delay passage until a meeting with more aldermen in attendance.

Vacations, Night Shifts
Vacations and night work shifts cut attendance, it was explained, and the mayor said he would cut industrial employ-ers, if necessary to get salaried excused from their jobs next Monday evening in order to get full attendance. However, several aldermen who were present Monday night, said they would be leaving on vacations next week.

"We might have to call a special meeting then," the mayor commented, adding that he would send out notices in ample time (a 48-hour notice is required) and check personally with each alderman to make certain they would be in attendance.

Solons Present
Aldermen present Monday night were Charles Meyer, Donald Partney, Paul Rutledge, Casmer Skubish, Samuel Shackelford, Frank Vesel, Robert Gaughan, Samuel Whitmer and Artnar Wlezer.

Absent were Aldermen Walter Noun, Rufus LeMaster, Steve Bosarick, Emerald Davies, Mrs. Gabrielle Bettner, Estill Van Schmittout and Frank Nemeth.

The new budget total of $1,465,942 is $177,877 under last year's budget total, but is $44,046 higher than last year's actual expenditures. The budget cut is due to a reduction of expenditures for the new fire station, which last year nearly wiped out the sales tax reserve.

"This year, the city is starting with a $94,000 reserve in the sales tax fund, of which about $38,000 is to be used to make the final payment for the fire house. The city's monthly income from sales tax averages between $14,000 and $15,000, to be added to the $56,000 estimated balance. The income for a year ranges from $168,000 to $180,000.

Mrs. Kibort had two large decorated cakes for the table centerpiece and served ice cream and cake. Mrs. Mary Andria and Miss Linda Reiske assisted the hosts with the serving and games.

To top off the excitement of the birthday, the girls were selected as "lucky birthday children" on a St. Louis television show and were sent roller skates for Kathy and a doll suitcase for Karen.

Other guests present were Jeff Ross, Maureen Andria, Michael Jameson, Robin Champion, Gordon, Clarence and David Wadfield, Virginia Sue Pyle, Molly Hopp, Donna and Carol Edington, Rhodie and Gayle Carper, David Roger and Margaret Anne MacZura, Gale Felt, Johnny Irwin, Ronnie and Jeff Kibort, Mrs. Haroldine Ross, Mrs. Margaret MacZura, Mrs. Juanita Felt, Mrs. Vi Reiske, Mrs. Margaret Rogers and Kenny and Keith, brothers of the honorees.

Miss Schmeil has spent the last three years in Oxnard, Calif., with the Red Cross and meted home with her mother, May.

She had as her guest Miss Viola Williams of Denver, Colo., who also is employed by the Red Cross. Miss Williams flew back to Denver on Sunday.

ATTEND CLASS REUNION
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fiefield and daughter Barbara, returned home late Sunday evening from Chippewa Falls, Wis., after attending a reunion of the 1940 class of the Chippewa Falls high school.

Mrs. Fiefield was a graduate in this class. She reported that 85% of the graduates were there for the reunion, including the boy who was voted the most shy; for the past two years, he has been a judge in heavy contests of two states for the "Miss America's" pageant.

Cub Pack 22 of Frohardt school will hold a father-and-son camp-out over the weekend at Reaver Dam near Carlinville. George Giska, cubmaster, has arranged for the campers to be at the school at 9:00 a. m. Saturday. They will return Sunday afternoon.

ers issued orders for all life guards to wear the new yellow sun helmets, which the park district recently purchased, and for all guards to wear the special red and white "guard trunks" when proper sizes are provided.

Work Priority List
Because of the rush of other activities, including preparations for the four-day July 4th celebration at Wilson Park, being sponsored by the park district, Supt. Williams was instructed to delay installation of playground equipment at the Tri-City Park and Nameoki playground sites.

He was instructed to give priority to completion of the tennis courts, installation of chemical toilets at the four baseball diamonds, completion of the Wilson Park restrooms.

Prices are to be obtained for installation of a five-foot fence around the outfield of the softball diamond, and Commissioners Worthen and Milton Allen were authorized to go to Marine, Ill., this week to purchase a portable concession stand, estimated to cost $1600 to $2000.

No action was taken on a recommendation for purchase of a new $1300 power mower, pending the preparation of the district's new budget. Lumber worth about $150 is to be purchased for construction of a "Music Under the Stars" program and the July 4 festival.

Authorization was given for the purchase of shoulder patches for members of the park police force.

Disbursements approved by the board amounted to $19,290, including $8486 for wages. Commissioner Earl Bloomquist reported that costs to date for remodeling the park playground rest rooms amount to $4944.

TFR President Dennis Announces Retirement

Fred L. Dennis, president and general manager of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., has announced today he will retire July 31 after being associated with the company for 33 years.

Dennis, of 415 N. 12th street, St. Louis, started his rail career in 1923 as an operator with the Burlington. In 1925 he became a general agent for his present employer at Decatur, and was subsequently appointed president and manager in 1958.

DIACS ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Dink entertained approximately 40 guests at a buffet supper in their new home, 2126 Clark avenue, Monday evening.

Cut flowers and Japanese lanterns decorated the patio and carport, where Mrs. Dink served the supper. Fellow workers of Mrs. Dink at the Finance and Accounting Branch of the Granite City Engineer Depot presented them with a gift for the new home.

Southbound auto collided on Washington avenue at the alley between Second and Third streets, Madison, at 8:05 P. M. Wednesday, damaging the left fender of the car of William A. Gillman, 63, of 2508 Third street, Madison, and the right fender and headlight of the auto of Henry H. McShan, 49, Brooklyn.

WANTED BY THE FBI

JOSEPH CORBETT, JR.

Corbett, one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives," is wanted for escape from the California Institution for Men, Chino, Calif., where he was serving a 5 years' life sentence for murdering an Air Force sergeant. A Federal warrant was issued at Los Angeles, Calif., on March 21, 1958, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for murder.

A white American, born on October 25, 1928, at Seattle, Wash., Corbett is 5 feet 1 inch to 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 160 to 170 pounds. He has light brown hair, hazel eyes, a fair complexion, a medium build, and has worked as a clerk-typist, laborer, warehouseman, laboratory technician, and alloy-iron cooker for a paint manufacturer. His two upper front teeth show inward and he wears glasses, reportedly being extremely nearsighted and capable of seeing only close objects without them. He has a mole under his chin and a C-shaped scar on his right thumb.

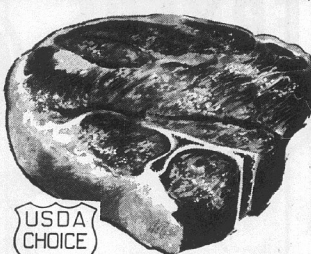

Corbett, once a premedical student, is interested in scientific matters, avidly reads technical and travel books, and is intensely interested in firearms and target practice. He reportedly has a superior general intelligence and generally lives quietly and neatly but becomes erratic when drinking alcoholic beverages.

Convicted of second-degree murder, he is considered armed and dangerous. Anyone having information concerning him should immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which can be found on the first page of local telephone directories. WFO 581300-10

Research Playing Important Role In Home Building Field

(This is the third of a series of three articles written by M. Freeman Wolfe, local contractor and president of the Home Builders Association of Southern Illinois, to outline the problems of planning and community growth.)

Wolf said he recently attended national and state meetings to obtain the material presented in the articles.)

"A new word has taken hold in the home building industry. It is 'research'."

"Home building, since the end of world war II, has undergone more changes in character than during all of its preceding history—and it is still changing. It has emerged from a craft to an industry, and with undeniable benefits to home buying families."

"These changes have come about through research—theory, experimentation by manufacturers of building supply materials and short-sleeve application by home builders in the field."

"Home buyers are concentrating on putting more value and better materials into acquiring homes and still holding the price line."

A lot of this work is being done by the Research Institute of the National Association of Home Builders. The Home Builders Association of Southern Illinois is one of the affiliated associations of the national organization which has some 44,000 members.

"They are doing this through the use of such time- and labor-saving techniques as pre-built components, replacement of traditional hand tool labor with skilled power tool operators, and using new materials which perform several functions that, under conventional methods, could be handled only by several different materials."

"The manufacturers of building materials have been highly cooperative with the home building industry in developing these new products more fitted for our rocket-growth age than the haphazard and buggy needs of generations ago."

"The Research Institute, in cooperation with manufacturers, is supervising the design and construction of a series of research homes across the country which help all members of Home Building Association to learn more about new products and materials."

"Already four research houses have been completed—at Kinsington, Md., South Bend, Ind., Knoxville, Tenn., and East Lansing, Mich., and more are planned."

"The ultimate benefit of these research homes are the home buyers everywhere. The materials and production methods which go into these research houses are passed on to other members of the home building industry."

"Naturally, no one of the housing picture—least of all the builders and their prospects—is looking for standardization of the styling of the finished product. Everyone cherishes his own individual tastes and styling. But these can be preserved even when factory techniques are applied to the building of a home. The variety of design and styling is infinite even with standard parts."

"What it all adds up to is this: Home buyers are getting more for their money than ever before. Research is helping to give them increased value, plus more comfort and livability."

Search For Slingshot Ends With Injury

Climbing a tree in search of wool for a slingshot Tuesday, 12-year-old Fred Shafer, son of Gerald Shafer of 3343 Palm street, fell to the ground breaking two bones in his left arm.

He was the first of three emergency cases at St. Elizabeth Hospital Tuesday. X-rays were taken, a cast applied, and he was released.

Donald Schannott, 18-month-old son of Mrs. Lucille Schannott, Mitchell, plummeted down the basement stairs at his home Tuesday evening. He was treated for lacerations over his left eyebrow. Four stitches were applied.

An unknown amount of pills were swallowed Tuesday night by Deborah Meldrin, two-year-old daughter of Howard Meldrin of 4704 Kirkpatrick Homes. She was released after a stomach lavage.

O'Guin Retires From U.E. After 18 Years

R. Thomas O'Guin, 2609 Grand avenue, retired from Union Electric Co. this month, after serving at the Granite City plant 18 years as a pump house operator.

Company employees presented O'Guin with a gold wrist watch in recognition of his lengthy service with the utility.

He plans a trip to Keeler Air Force base, Biloxi, Miss., next month to visit his son, Airman 1st Class Jerry O'Guin. His wife Freda and two daughters, Connie and Harriet, will accompany him.

Fines Total $90

Fines totaling $90 were imposed Monday on Cledith Milan, 30, of 4348 Highway 162, who pleaded guilty to six charges during a hearing before Police Magistrate Gasparovic. He was fined $10 and costs on a charge of destruction of property, filed by Frank Ruppel, proprietor of the "Tip Top Tavern"; and police charges and fines were—drunkenness, $10; creating a disturbance, $10; reckless driving, $25; resisting arrest, $25, and using profanity, $10. Bids Sought To Replace Roof On City Hall

Bids will be sought to install a new roof on the city hall building. Council members voted Monday night to seek bids after studying a report on the existing roof by architects.

Alderman Casner Skubish pointed out several weeks ago that a leak had developed and was causing damage to the newly-decorated rooms in the city court offices. He was authorized then to have the roof inspected.

The firm of Gabriel & Dugger, off, architects, was paid $20 to inspect the roof and submit a recommendation. They suggested that because of a number of blisters on the flat roof, some of them 24 inches in diameter and others broken and oozing water, that all roofing materials be removed and a new roof applied along with new flashing at the chimney and along the parapet.

The architects recommended a tar and gravel roof, and suggested as a further test that a hose be played on the parapet in the vicinity of the leak to determine if the parapet is faulty.

Skubish asked City Atty. William J. Beatty to determine if the roofing concern which patched the roof several years ago and submitted a 10-year guarantee could be required to pay part of the costs.

Beatty replied, "The chance of recovery is rather dubious, but we will try to reach some settlement."

Speeding Ticket

Where they used to deliver 2,000 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride paving every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sideways on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

Burglary Prevention Week To Be Observed

Quad-City police chiefs today announced that the week of June 28-July 2 will be observed as Burglary Prevention Week. Local observance will be held in conjunction with a statewide program inaugurated and sponsored by the Illinois Police Association.

Purpose will be to educate the public on how individual citizens can help reduce burglary losses. During 1959, burglaries totaled 655,000 in this country — about 77 every hour.

"This is a staggering total, even though it represents a 2% decrease from the previous year," Chiefs Raymond Wilkard, Barney Fraundorf and Robert Trower said in a joint announcement.

"The total appears even more staggering when one considers that the value of stolen property approximates $88,000,000 a year, of which only about 54% is recovered."

The chiefs went on to say that many of these burglaries could have been prevented if the people had taken some simple precautions to protect their homes and property.

"People often leave their homes for an evening, weekend or vacation without a thought given to the precautions recommended by their local police department. Windows are left open, keys left under the door mat, or in the mail box, a completely dark house or, even worse, lights burning 24 hours a day. All the earmarks that tell a burglar, 'this family is away.'"

Cooperation Needed
"Apprehending burglars is of course, the job of your police department. But, the more neighborhood burglary can be effectively be carried out by the homeowner. Only with his complete cooperation can this war against the high burglary rate be successful."

The chiefs suggest these precautionary measures by every homeowner:

1. Leave one or two lamps connected to an automatic timer to turn on and off regularly each evening. This makes the residence look "lived-in" and is a good protective measure.

2. Close and lock all doors and windows, including basement porch and garage. Use pin tumbler cylinder locks on all outside doors and safety latches on windows.

3. Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation of milk bottles and newspapers on the steps is a sure sign one is home.

4. If you're going away for a weekend or longer, notify the police department as to the date you are leaving and the date you will return. When leaving for a longer period, tell the police where you may be reached and a key for your premises obtained.

5. When you plan to be away, have your post office stop mail deliveries to your home—or have a neighbor collect it—and make sure no store deliveries will arrive during your absence.

6. Have your phone disconnected when you're away on vacation. Burglars will sometimes call to see if anyone is home.

7. If away on vacation, have your lawn mowed and the sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.

8. Leave shades or blinds as normally would when you are home—never close them completely.

9. Tell a neighbor when you are leaving. Have him notify police if he sees anyone prowling around.

10. Burglars have big ears, so never advertise your departure or broadcast the news to your neighborhood at large. Your trip is still news when you return, but no longer to burglars.

11. Never leave ladders and tools where outsiders can get at them. To do so is equivalent to giving the thief a key to your front door.

Store Valuables
12. Do not tell neighbors friends and work associates of the valuables you have lying around. In fact, don't even mention them by name or value.

13. If only out for a little while, be sure to close those garage doors. An empty garage with the doors open is a good sign that no one is home.

"All these precautions are easy to follow and involve virtually no expenditure, but they may mean you'll be able to come home to everything you left," the chiefs concluded.

Vandals Arrested In Venice; Admit Burglary

Three Brooklyn boys who stretched a wire across South Fourth street June 16 were apprehended and questioned by Venice police Tuesday morning.

However, they were released the same day to Brooklyn police for prosecution on burglary charges.

Three were identified after Venice police saw one of them walking at Fourth street and Carroll avenue at 4 a.m. Tuesday. Questioned about a bag of cigarettes he was carrying, he related that he and the other two boys had obtained them in a break-in at a Brooklyn laundromat June 17. Brooklyn police were contacted and took custody after the other two were arrested for questioning.

The wire which the boys held across Fourth street, a state route, broke the aerial of an auto owned by Eddie Gray, 122 Granville street. One of the boys is 14 years old and the other two are 15.

Solons Delay Action On Parking Lot Option

Granite City council members postponed a request by Mayor Davis for the city to exercise its option on purchase of a dwelling at 2030 Edison avenue to use the property for additional parking space at the city hall.

The solons decided the matter should be deferred until the city's new budget is presented for adoption, which probably will be next Monday.

Alderman Casmer Skubish said the option will expire at the end of the month, and the delay should be only until the budget adoption.

The city has been informed the sale price is $15,750 for the property, which includes a 1½-story brick house. It has not been determined if the house is to be razed or resold for removal.

A number of city employees are without parking spaces at the city hall building, because of the official cars. There is room for six to eight cars behind the city hall building at present.

City Buys New Insect Spray Jeep For $1380

A bid of $1380 submitted by a Missouri firm was accepted Monday night by Granite City council members for purchase of a new Jeep vehicle for the sanitation department.

The successful bidder was the Reuthers Auto Sales & Service Co., Creve Coeur, Mo. The only other proposal in the amount of $1408 was received from Superior Coach Sales, Inc., Hazelwood, Mo.

The city will trade in a 1948 Jeep, and will put the new machine in operation with the department's other vehicle for insect spraying.

Street Sign Project Begun, Kiwanis Report

A project to raise money to purchase and install signs to designate street names in Mitchell is under way, it was reported at Monday night's meeting of the Mitchell Kiwanis by President Robert Franko.

The project is expected to take two years to complete. Thirteen members attended a dinner given by the group at Smith's Cafe in Mitchell. Members present from East St. Louis included past Lt. Gov. Pete Hodyna. The East Side club presented a traveling gavel to the Mitchell club, which will in turn take the gavel to Centerville on June 30.

A film about the French River was shown during the remainder of the meeting.

TEACHER POINTS OUT EXTRA HOURS OF WORK

Mr. C. E. Townsend
Granite City Press-Record
Dear Mr. Townsend:

I have noticed your editorial in last Thursday's (June 16) Press-Record. I am sorry that you figured that teachers get high salaries by the day and hour. Also most of us do not think it is fair to have our salaries quoted as the yearly salary divided by nine for monthly. We have the privilege of choosing how we receive our salary by nine or twelve months basis so many of us take it on the twelve month schedule as that is how many months we have to live on it.

But we, as professional people do not work by the hourly basis. True, we grade school teachers are required to be in the building from 8:30 to 3:30 and have one half hour off at noon. But most conscientious teachers give freely of their time to help children who have been absent or are otherwise behind with their work. Some of us help before school at recess, at noon and after school. On many school days I have worked five or six hours in the 200 block of Delmar besides the minimum hours because we have tests and compositions to grade at night and sometimes on Saturdays and Sundays. There is no overtime pay so you see it isn't fair to say that we get high hourly wages.

How would doctors like it if you put it in the paper how much they take in, gross, for the regular four or six hours they are in their office? We know they have more overhead expenses, but the hourly income would look too big to the public. How would you like for some one to put in public print how much you take in by the two days you get the paper out, without considering your overhead expenses and preparation on other days? You know there is a lot of preparation for school. Some teachers spend several hundred dollars a year going to summer school or night school, some both.

I had wanted to be a teacher since I was in the fourth grade. I'd like to do it just for the satisfaction of doing my part to help to live on. I'd like to say that most of us did not want to go on strike. We agreed to go down near the Board of Education office at 7:30 that morning as we understood they were going to have a meeting that morning and let us know whether they would negotiate or submit the salary question to a board of arbitration. We thought we would be back to our school rooms by 8:30 or 9:00 to meet our children for a few hours (a day) and give out report cards.

However, there were some misunderstandings so we stayed on to vote as to what to do, thinking that at any minute could get through and go back to school, morning or afternoon. But when the final voting was over it was too late — eight o'clock in the evening. Some of us went back Monday morning to help make up for the party or parties responsible.

Bid Of $3850 Ok'd For Franklin Ave. Drainage

An engineer's estimate of $3000 for installation of the Franklin avenue drainage line proved to be over $1000 high. Granite City council members accepted a bid of $3850 submitted by A. H. Seebold Co. to do the job.

The 671-foot drainage line, extending from Clark avenue to an existing trunk line along Johnson road, was bid closely, as G. H. Sternberg & Co. submitted a $3880 proposal, only $30 higher than the Seebold bid. The two firms were the only bidders.

The project is to include 250 feet of 15-inch line, 415 feet of 12-inch line, two manholes and two catch basins. It is designed to remove standing water from a dip in the 3300 block of Franklin avenue.

Solons Register Complaints
Several complaints were registered by solons and referred to the mayor and city attorney for action.

Alderman Samuel Whitmer, chairman of the Street and Alley committee, said he is not satisfied with the excavation being carried out by Illinois Power Co. and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. on the 25th street and 26th street intersection. He said the firm was not complying with the city ordinance.

He asked the superintendent of streets to inspect a series of excavations by the power company in the 2200 block of Delmar avenue and a lengthy excavation by the telephone company along 25th street and report his findings to the mayor and attorney.

Whitmer said the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. has three firms for its excavations and the work appears to be satisfactory.

Slinking Sidewalk
Alderman Robert Gaughan referred to the city attorney a sidewalk problem at the 26th street parkway on Iowa street and at missing Friday. Some were at our building who live out of town many miles. Of course we don't like to be docked when we have our work done. But we haven't received the paychecks we were supposed to get Friday, June 10.

Let's hope differences may be solved and all be friendly & considerate.

Sincerely,
VERNA E. WILITROUT.
P.S. Your idea of twelve months school has some good points as for using the buildings but we think it would be too much of a mixup as to some taking 3 months vacation as they pleased. Or if they went steadily they would get first too young.

CITIZEN SAVES TEXTBOOKS
GIVE 'EM A LITTLE INDOCRINATION!
Mr. Townsend, Editor, Granite City Press-Record

Dear Sir:
Talking about Communism will accomplish nothing unless something constructive is done to combat it.

A perusal of some textbooks used in our local school system will reveal what subtle indoctrination our children are receiving; so, I think a good place to start combatting Communism would be the removal of such textbooks from our schools, & the immediate expulsion of the party or parties responsible.

A CONCERNED CITIZEN.

Escapes Injury In Crash

An auto driven by Avery Curtis, 49, of 213 Weaver street, Venice, was involved in a three-car mishap at 8 a. m. Tuesday in the 100 block of West street, Edwardsville. He escaped injury. Police charged Thomas Crawford, 48, Edwardsville, with a right-of-way violation after Crawford's car backed out of a driveway into Curtis' path. The Curtis car then collided with a parked auto.

Sheds Damaged By Fire

Madison firemen were called at 6:12 p. m. Monday for 908 Madison street, West Madison, where two small frame sheds owned by Riley Harper had caught fire. Damage to the sheds was estimated at $25, and a nearby utility pole was scorched. Firemen attributed the blaze to children playing with matches.

Over 3000 Venice, Madison Vehicle Licenses Issued

Over 3000 vehicle licenses have been issued in the cities of Madison and Venice for the 1960-61 fiscal year beginning May 1, and efforts are being made to complete issuance this month. Madison City Comptroller E. J. Miller said this week that about 1500 auto licenses and 125 truck licenses have been issued. The Madison window tags will be free until July 1, after which they will cost $3 for cars and $3 for trucks except for vehicles newly purchased within ten days of the application. Last year's licenses totaled about 2200 and 200.

Warning notices are being issued in Venice, where $3 auto and truck licenses have been on sale during May and this month. The date for arrests to start has not yet been announced. About 875 Venice tags have been issued, compared to slightly over 1100 last year. In addition, 215 delivery licenses have been sold by City Comptroller Carl E. Byrnes.

$10 Traffic Light Fine

A Michigan motorist, Joseph E. Payne, 60, of Wyandotte, was fined $10 and costs Tuesday morning when he appeared before Police Magistrate Gasparovic on a charge of failing to observe a traffic signal at Niedringhaus and Grand avenues. He was arrested earlier in the morning by Granite City police.

41 VOLUMES OF CITY ORDINANCES, a stack nearly five feet high, is displayed by Granite City Clerk A. L. Stevens, who holds the 80-page new Municipal Code, which represents a consolidation of the city's nearly 2000 ordinances. Many of the ordinances in the volume were not included in the code—such as the annual appropriation and salary ordinances and those superseded by newer laws.

City's New Municipal Code Replaces 41 Volumes of Laws

Granite City's 41 volumes containing nearly 2000 ordinances and laws will not be discarded completely even though the new municipal code is finished and now being used by officials. The code, with its index, contains only 80 pages, as compared to the five-foot stack made by the ordinance books.

City Clerk A. L. Stevens said he will keep the 41 volumes on file in his office vault for reference purposes. The new code, which is being sold for $2 to the public, will be distributed to the aldermen and other city officials. During Monday night's council session, it was noted that at least 10 of the newer ordinances included in the code, had no date of passage or official signatures.

Mrs. Cox Named As New Librarian In Madison

Appointment of Mrs. Catherine Cox, 1815 Fourth street, as librarian of the Madison public library was announced this week by the library board. She will begin her new duties on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Cox and her husband, Trefle, a teacher of visual arts and drafting at Granite City high school, have resided in Madison for 20 years. She has been employed as a teacher and librarian in Troy for 16 years.

St. Louis Following Local Schools In Adding Russian, Grade School Languages

Establishment of a course in Russian at Granite City high school effective in September and board approval of a similar program in the Madison school district have marked the first steps in that direction in this area, but apparently not the last.

The St. Louis public school system this week announced its first class in the Russian language. Robert L. Baker, director of secondary education, commented in the announcement that "We think there's a real need for teaching Russian." The St. Louis plans call for Russian, German, Spanish and French to be taught to fifth through eighth graders this summer, with the classes continued on Saturdays beginning this fall and the foreign language program for elementary pupils expanded if it proves successful.

The Granite City and Madison districts also are making foreign language available below the high school level. With the St. Louis school system following suit on both this program and on the teaching of Russian, it appears that the local districts are leading the way for the entire metropolitan area toward an enlightened educational program geared to today's needs and modern teaching techniques.

Razing Of Two School Buildings In Madison Marks End Of An Era

Destruction of the Harris and Blair grade schools marks the end of an era in the Madison school district. Dating back to the turn of the century and even the 1890s, the two buildings have housed many thousands of grade and high school students but now must be removed to make way for safer, more modern schools.

With the investment in construction and maintenance, schools represent a major expenditure by a community. Yet, as the decades pass, thought must be given to their eventual replacement, and that time has arrived in Madison. It will be recalled that St. Mark's school in Venice was razed and replaced several years ago, and the Liberty school in Granite City also has been taken out of service and is to be removed.

Over the years, new concepts develop in building design, educational needs, construction techniques and safety standards. These requirements will be met with the two new Madison elementary schools, and the pupils undoubtedly will feel a surge of pride as they report to their brand-new, ultra-modern buildings this fall. Elimination of the older schools is a nostalgic but inevitable development.

Purchase Of Industry Improves General Steel's Growth Potential

General Steel Castings Corporation's purchase of the St. Louis Car Company is particularly good news because it will enable both to extend present markets and develop new products. As General Steel President C. P. Whitehead noted, "The acquisition is an important step toward diversification."

The purchase will blend the production capacity of a railroad equipment and fabricated metal industry with that of General Steel, a producer of larger steel castings, cast armor, iron and steel rolls and road building, power generating and general industrial equipment.

While General Steel already occupies a major place in the local industrial family and St. Louis Car holds a strong position in the expanding rapid transit field, both have future problems. The merger creates new opportunities for growth and should solidify the two industrial operations.

GC Woman Faces Forgery Charge

A charge of forgery was filed Monday by the First Granite City National Bank against Mrs. Margaret Hefflin, 32, of 2724 Saratoga avenue, who has waived a preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Gasparovic and had been bound over to the Madison county circuit court grand jury.

Mrs. Hefflin's bond was set at $1000. A bank official said she signed a neighbor's name on checks amounting to about $50.

Mrs. Cobb Dies In Wood River; Aunt Of GC Woman

Services will be held today in Wood River for Mrs. Rose Etta Cobb, 61, of 127 Boardman avenue, Wood River. The wife of T. V. Cobb, who died in May 1955, she had resided in Wood River since 1917. She had been in ill health for the past three years.

Among her survivors are a niece, Mrs. Mary Ford of Granite City, and an infant who will be about 2 1/2 years old.

Quad-Cities Blessed With Long Service By Many Pastors

Honors accorded to Rev. H. H. Wintermeyer this week were well deserved. His 50 years as a minister have included 22 years as pastor of St. Peter Evangelical and Reformed Church, where he is now pastor emeritus.

The services and reception honoring Rev. Wintermeyer will follow an observance earlier this year recognizing the silver jubilee of Rev. Robert C. McCarthy, pastor of St. Mark's Catholic Church.

The Quad-City community has been blessed through the years with devoted service by its pastors, many of whom have spent large portions of their lives at local churches. Those honored this year take their place among the many to whom this area owes a deep debt of gratitude.

West Pontoon Paving Spotlights Importance Of Connecting Roads

Connecting roads became increasingly important as communities build outward, for driving time and inconvenience must be kept to a minimum if residential growth is to be encouraged. For this reason, scheduled paving of a half-mile section of West Pontoon road is an important step forward.

The $148,000 county program will result in modern four-lane concrete pavement extending from Route 674 north of the A. D. Smith Corp. to the western boundary of the Melrose Addition. The railroad-velocitar crossing near the highway is to be improved, with some type of warning device installed. The paving will bring nearer the day when a modern roadway will extend all the way along West Pontoon to Nameoki road. Such an improvement should speed traffic flow and ease congestion on other local routes.

All-Purpose Election Slogan For November—Don't Delay, Vote Today

What with the national nominating conventions coming up in July, followed by the election of a president and vice-president in the fall, it is not surprising that many campaign slogans have developed. Others will be formulated this summer as new issues arise and as definite candidates are chosen.

How much effect the slogans have is debatable, but they do serve to add a light touch as well as some serious statements. Perhaps the widest variety heard this year was unveiled in the recent Oregon primary election, where Nixon forces used the familiar rhyming technique, "Let's do the trick—vote for Dick," and Humphrey adherents conjured up "The vision of Roosevelt... intellect of Stevenson... courage of Truman."

Buttons favoring Sen. Morse in his home state described him as "a candidate who votes the way he talks," while still others said, "I won't be kicked by a horse, but I'm for Morse." But not all of the slogans dealt with nationally-known political figures. One conventional delegate candidate urged voters to "prosper and progress with Popcorn." Another delegate aspirant, pledging himself to follow the primary election results, used a slogan of "For your candidate and the president. A third kept the voters guessing as to his choice with "Put a Democrat back in the White House."

Other election buttons seen prominently included "Prompt, efficient, impartial service" and "That government is best which governs least." One candidate took care to make no enemies, biding his campaign on "Live and Let Live." The slogan which drew the most second glances was that of "you guessed it—a woman candidate. Her three-word platform: "Action, no slogans."

Steelworkers Local 67 To Install New Officers

United Steelworkers Local 67 of the Granite City Steel Co. will install its new officers at 7:30 p. m. Monday, July 11, at the Labor Temple. It was announced this week.

Clyde W. Boyd will be installed as the new president, having defeated Phillip Sykes 243 to 183. George Grimm received 160 votes for the office.

Recording Secretary Jim Keelan, Financial Secretary Victor Sittin and Guard Henry Powell were re-elected over opposition. Those unopposed were George Knapp, re-elected as treasurer, and Weldon Burch, elected as guide.

Vacation Bible School Closes

The closing program of the daily vacation Bible school of the Gospel Haven Church, 2311 Charles street, will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening. There will also be a picnic at Wilson Park on Friday.

The school, which has been in progress since June 13, has had an average attendance of 55.

In other contests, Tom Bauer, Howard Stopkotte and W. O. Bell were elected as trustees. Grimm was elected as hot strip department joint committee man and Boyd won as cold strip department joint committee man.

Shelters Being Built In Chile Quake Area

Building supplies to be used in constructing shelters for 2000 of Chile's hardest-hit families have been purchased by the American Red Cross. It was announced this week. A special fund drive is being held to appeal for other funds forwarded to Chile after it was struck by a disastrous series of earthquakes in late May.

The shelters are regarded as badly needed, because the winter weather is already adding to the suffering in Chile. The seasons are reversed below the equator.

At the request of the Chilean Red Cross and government, the national headquarters is providing 200,000 square feet of corrugated aluminum roofing and 1,000,000 square feet of interior wallboard for sheltering being set up in southern Chile. Chileans are supplying other necessary material and arranging for construction of units, which later will be converted into permanent dwellings.

The U. S. State Department has worked out plans for roofing and some wallboard to be flown in, while the balance of the wallboard will be shipped by sea. The American Red Cross is sending to Chilean youngsters affected by the disaster 150 school chests filled with such articles as recreation equipment, health items and school supplies.

The Red Cross currently is assembling in Chile 5000 family kitchen units having a total value of over $175,000, each containing a two-burner kerosene stove, large cookpot, frying pan, water jug, tea kettle, wash tub, soup ladle, plates, cups, knives, forks and spoons. Distribution of the units began June 14.

Since the disaster struck, the Red Cross has sent large quantities of drugs, clothing, blankets and other relief material. The American disaster team in Chile is being headed by Robert Pierpont, deputy national disaster director of the American Red Cross.

"There is no business as usual," Pierpont has written in informing local Red Cross officials of the conditions. Valdivia, a town of 80,000 and one of the most attractive cities in the country, is a shambles. The ten-story concrete and masonry Health Institute Hospital is morass of fallen plaster, broken cornices, leaking water pipes and broken glass, and will probably have to come down.

"In the center of town there is a new hospital nearing completion, about eight stories tall, and it will have to be demolished. The street along the river sank three feet in a tortured pattern, causing the riverfront a series of dots and dashes as far as the buildings are concerned. Water is in the houses that stand. The high school, which has been turned into a hospital, and outside on the athletic field is the Seventh U. S. Army field hospital.

"In the public square, families are huddled in the mud under hovels of scrap tin, paper and cardboard, cooking over open fires and trying to wash laundry in a tin tub over an open fire. They remain outdoors with their few salvaged belongings in a climate that will bring 100 inches of rain in the next seven months—at the mercy of God and the elements. These are the visible ones. Others are 20 to a house, or more, crowded in unsafe rooms."

Speeding Ticket
Robert L. Barclay, 17, of 2621 Cleveland blvd., was issued an arrest ticket Monday afternoon at 22nd and Iowa streets by Granite City police who charged him with speeding. He posted his driver's license as bond.

4 Rezoning Petitions Received By City

Four petitions asking for residential classed property to be rezoned for commercial and light industrial purposes were received by Granite City council members Monday night and referred to the City Plan Commission.

William B. Webb Jr. and Christine Webb are requesting a C-2 commercial designation for two lots at Lincoln avenue and Nameoki road now zoned as R-3. Robert E. Robertson also is requesting a C-2 zone classification for two lots on the northeast corner of Johnson road and Lydia lane, and set forth in his petition other commercial places in the same block.

An M-1 light industrial classification is being sought for three lots, known as 1205 Twenty-first street, now occupied by Brookus Machine Co. The present zoning is R-3 residential. In the petition, the machine shop firm, which owns three lots, and Arthur Rose, who owns the third, point out the property was being used for light industrial purposes at the time it was zoned R-3 and continues to be used for industrial purposes.

Maryland Bounceland, Second Local Trampoline Center, Opens Tomorrow

The area's second trampoline center, located between Franklin Avenue and Johnson Road, will open officially at 10 a. m. tomorrow, co-owner, Leland Ambush, said today.

Most trampolines have been installed in conventional ground level mountings at the "Maryland Bounceland," each over open pits dug in the ground and surrounded by wooden frames.

Ellef will operate the center together with his brother, Boris, and Leland Ambush. Adult supervision will be provided at all times around the rebound equipment, Ellef said the center will be open to children of pre-school age through those in the "middle age."

"The 'jump for fun' sport has gained avid fans and supporters from all across the nation and, according to some health officials, it helps the individual develop co-ordination and balance while aiding in improving physical condition.

The Maryland Bounceland will be illuminated for night operation and has off-street parking facilities for about 50 automobiles, Ellef said.

The equipment installed at the center is the product of the American Trampoline Co. of Jefferson, Ia. Ellef said it conforms to all safety specifications and is selected by the owners after they had checked all similar equipment being offered for sale in this area.

The new center will operate seven days a week, "Bouncing" hours Monday through Thursday will be 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.; on Fridays, Saturdays and holidays, from 10 a. m. to 11:30 p. m.; and on Sundays, from noon to 11:30 p. m.

John Sekora To Appear On TV Quiz Program

John Sekora, 805 Iowa street, Madison, will be a member of a five-man team representing Bradley University at the weekly "College Bowl" quiz program in New York City, to be televised by CBS Sunday. The half-hour show, sponsored by General Electric, will be carried over channel 4 starting at 8:30 p. m.

Winning schools are determined each week on the basis of the number of correct answers they give to questions taken from the American International encyclopedia. The questions per school are covered in the student's college curriculum.

The school ranking up the highest point score receives $1500 for scholarship purposes. Runners-up schools receive $300 for scholarships. Bradley will be competing against a team from Rutgers University of New Brunswick, N. J., last week's winner.

In his junior year at Bradley, Sekora is employed in the news department of the Press-Record for the summer. Throughout his three years at college he has maintained a straight A (perfect) average, and last year was awarded a scholarship medal by the University for ranking highest in his class.

The Downstate Fisherman

By PETE BROWN

(Prepared by the Southern Illinois University Information Service from area reports)

"They've flat turned on again!" at Horseshoe Lake according to our intrepid Cairo sportsman-informant Jim Walsinger, but crappie and bluegill fishing elsewhere has been tailed off considerably.

The other notable development of the week is a long-awaited outburst of bass activity at Crab Orchard. The bigmouth are off the beds, roaming, mean and hungry, and good catches have been reported at all hours of the day. Harry Wright of Carbondale hung into eight nice ones one morning. Al Pethmann latched onto eight during a fast furious noon hour, and another pair of veterans took limits during the afternoon and evening expedition.

Irving Pethmann and W. E. Kepper hooked 20 Saturday evening, landing 12 of them, and netted nine more in 45 minutes last week.

Mound City barber George Honan closed up shop and hit Horseshoe Lake for a string of 100 crappie. "When they start hitting good, those haints have to go," all on the Bucktail. Bluegill fishing is fair to good and bass (two to three pounds) seem to be responding well for the few pluggers aboard. Several 80- to 100-crappie strings have come out of the lake in the past few days.

Trotline and bankline fishermen are hanging up some fair catches on the river; Bill Lebo, local restaurant owner, nailed a 25-pounder.

The creeks are coming in and bass, bluegill, striped bass and crappie are being caught in slow. Bluegill are active, but not as much as in the past two weeks.

Bass at Little Grassy still appear somewhat indecisive, although the fishing there has picked up slightly. They seem to have moved back out, and artificial worms and eels along with

Williams Smallest Player In Annual All-Star Cage Game

Granite City's Rich Williams will be the smallest player on the floor when the North and South squads tangle in the annual prep all-star basketball game on July 16 in Champaign.

The 5-10 Williams is a member of the South squad, which will give away an average of some three inches in height per man to the North stars. James "Barney" Oldfield, McKendree College basketball coach, will direct the high school stars from southern Illinois, while Spin Salaria, coach of Marshall of Chicago, will tutor the top prep players from the northern half of the state.

The exhibition game will be played in the Urbana Armory as part of the Champaign centennial celebration.

Joining Williams on the South all-star roster will be Dave (6-7) Roach of Pinckneyville, Dave (6-3) Pike of West Frankfort, both of whom played against Williams in sectional games early this year; Jerry (6-3) Sloan of McLeansboro, Gene (6-7) Turn of Herrin, Don (6-3) Brooks of East St. Louis, Stan (6-5) Luedtke of Oakville, Bob (6-0) Butler of Champaign, Rick (6-3) LoPrest of Peoria and Bill (6-3) Edwards of Windsor.

The North squad is made up of George (6-8) Wilson of Marshall, Bumpy (6-4) Nixon of Galesburg, John (6-5) Love of Ottawa, Bernie (6-7) Mills of Chicago, Dunbar, Rich (5-11) Fink of Galva, Clyde (6-3) Kramer of Erie, George (6-11) Clark of Elgin, Dennis (6-6) Hansen of Glenbard, Ralph (6-3) Cannon of Galesburg and Bill (6-9) Sikes of Eastview.

Sportswriters from across the state selected the two 10-member squads. Reserved seat tickets for the game are available now and may be obtained by sending a check or money order with the ticket request to All-Star Game Tickets, 1311 West Church street, Champaign. They are priced at $1.50 each.

OUTBOARDING'S BEST DEAL IN A DECADE

40 hp performance,
4-cylinder dependability
for little more than a 2-cylinder 25!

Before you buy any outboard in the 25-40 hp class, compare it with a Mercury — the best horsepower buy in outboard history! A Merc 300 gives 40 hp performance plus the extra dependability and smoothness of 4-cylinder design, but is yours for about the same price as competitors' 25 hp motors with only two cylinders. And a 4-cylinder Merc 400 has 45 hp performance but is priced in the range of competitors' 40 hp 2-cylinder motors.

BIG POWER at low cost is just one reason why you'll want a dependable Mercury "four" — the modern in-line engine design with lighter, tougher reciprocating parts and much lower piston speeds than competitors' long-stroke, big-bore twins. Mercury's short-stroke, small-bore design reduces inertia forces — the main cause of engine wear — to only about one-third those of competitors' outboards operating at the same RPM. So you get not only bonus performance but longer engine life. See your dealer for a demonstration of Mercury — 6 to 80 hp. Ask about liberal trades, easy terms.

Take a family demonstration ride now at your Mercury dealers! Get Free booklet, "Introduction to Outboarding".

Banquet, Horse Show Planned By Rotarians

Weather-grip Fat Fontaine, popular forecaster for KMOX-TV, will definitely be guest speaker at the Granite City Rotarians' installation banquet next Wednesday, it was announced at their meeting Tuesday.

The banquet, designed to formally install Rotary officers for the coming year, will be held at the Carriage House restaurant in Belleville at 6:30 p.m. Entertainment and flowers for ladies attending are included in the charge of $8.50 a person. Rotarian Sid Aubrey will be master of ceremonies.

Several members were given name lists of merchants to call for solicitation of advertising space for the annual Rotarian-sponsored horse show in August. Members were also issued sets of tickets to sell. An innovation in this year's program will be a long-term page listing names of Rotarians.

Rev. Vernie Barnett, minister of the Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church, was program chairman at the meeting and introduced John J. McBride, vice-president of Union Star and Refining Co., who spoke on "The National Convention."

Some 40 Rotarians attended the luncheon meeting at the YMCA.

Mercer, McMackin Meet In Night Game; Hearts Play Maryville Here

Although the deadline for signing new players to contracts is still the better part of two months distant, several of the teams in the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League have been filling up their rosters early on the premise that the first half of the season may be decided during the first half of the schedule, "so why wait?"

Latest addition to the local I-C squads is Rich Williams, Granite City high school product best remembered for his basketball prowess, but also a pretty fair baseball shortstop, who joined the Mercer Tumbrels from this week.

The biggest percentage of the new faces around the league belong to pitchers, however. Howard Mackey, signed by State Savings of East St. Louis last week, twice pitched a hitless last Sunday and picked up a win his first time out.

Joe Holder, another GCIS product, has been a member of the Mercer pitching staff for two years. He is a right-handed pitcher, and has already recorded two mound victories, both in relief.

The first game of the coming weekend I-C schedule appears to be the top attraction among five contests, and is certainly an important one for Mercer and McMackin, who will meet under the lights at Fletcher field in Collinsville Saturday night.

McMackin, which has come alive during the past two weeks and moved into a three-way tie for first place in the Red City division, needs a win to insure its position and perhaps even move into the division lead.

Mercer, on top by two games in the Blue Loop, handed John Harrison's team its worst defeat of the current season, 15-4, when the two teams met here on May 8. Steady improvement by the McMackin pitching staff since then would seem to discredit the chances for such a lopsided repeat win by Mercer.

"We really need this game," Mercer Co-Manager Dick Portell said this week. "It would leave us in real good shape if we can win."

Asked how he felt about playing under the lights in Collinsville, Portell replied: "It's a disadvantage for both, but I think we have the edge on us since they play six games at home at night."

Co-Manager Ollie Miller was not quite as optimistic. "We didn't want to play a night game this year, and I for one won't agree to any more games under the lights this season or next," he said. "At the beginning of the season we requested league officers not to schedule us there at night, but they did, anyway, without telling us."

McMackin Manager Harrison defended the lighting setup at Fletcher field, after Granite City Sacred Heart Manager Layman "Chucker" had complained that his outfielders "lost" three routine flyballs during a recent heart visit to the diamond.

"They're class 'B' lights," Harrison said. "True, there are a couple of blind spots in the outfield, but even a high fly ball doesn't go out of the range of the lights."

Farmley Sidelland Mercer will be handicapped Saturday evening by the absence of regular outfielder Jerry Parkley, who will be sidelined for at least another week with a wrenched knee.

Miller and Portell are discussing the possibility of shifting Don Crabtree back to the outfield from shortstop and inserting Williams in his place. Jack Duente most likely will draw his second starting assignment on the mound for Mercer with Bob Kovacic.

Sacred Heart, struggling to hold a first-place tie with McMackin and State Savings in the Red division, will send Bob Page in search of his seventh win Sunday against Maryville at Wilson Park. Page has accounted for all six Heart victories, and probably will oppose left-handed Cecil Simpson of the Red Sox.

State Savings, meanwhile, will be shooting for its third straight win when it hosts Highland at Jones Park in East St. Louis. McMaster Glass is at White City and Carpenter plays in Troy in Sunday afternoon contests.

United Lutheran Church 'Charter Day' Sunday
Rev. Bodo Mehling, pastor of the United Lutheran Church of Granite City, said today that a special "charter day" will be observed by the church Sunday at its present sanctuary in the Old Fellows Hall at 20th street and Grand avenue.
Rev. Mehling said members of the congregation who wish to become charter members of the denomination will sign their names to a charter during the 10 a.m. worship service. The minister added that the church hopes to organize officially on Oct. 31 of this year.
The church is currently negotiating the purchase of five acres of ground for a building site, and has set late 1962 as the target date for the completion of a church building. The building site was not disclosed by Rev. Mehling.

New B. F. Goodrich Tire Store Is Open
Final electrical, heating and painting work is still to be completed, but the new B. F. Goodrich Tire Co. branch store at 23rd street and Madison avenue is already open for business, manager Fred Maher said today.
Maher said the store is planning a special sale, probably during the second week of July, in conjunction with a formal opening.
Included in the 120-foot long building are a sales and display area containing 1400 square feet of floor space, tire storage racks and separate departments for tire changing, front end alignment and wheel and brake service. Offstreet customer parking is provided in a paved area which fronts on 23rd street.
The building is constructed of steel, brick and glass, and employs a new combined air conditioning-gas heating system. The sales and display area is furnished with adjustable shelving and display racks. The store's stock, which will include refrigerators, deep freezers, television sets, bicycles and many types of small electrical appliances in addition to tires, is currently being moved into place.
Maher, who has been manager of the firm's present Granite City store at 1506 State street since it opened 12 years ago, said five or six persons will be employed at the new building.

Pontiac's Extra Measure: Better Control

The reason is this: The track (not the body) is wider than any other car. The result is astonishing. You corner more securely, cruise with more confidence, hold a truer course in traffic. The best way, in fact, to measure Pontiac's Wide-Track Wheels is from the driver's seat. Put yourself in this remarkable position soon.

GC Solon Calls For Cut In City Spending

The city's first monthly financial report of the new fiscal year was presented to Granite City council members Monday night and brought forth an appeal for a close watch on expenditures by Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman of the Finance Committee.

Rutledge emphasized that $91,523 was spent for general operations during the fiscal year's first month, and that an additional $39,194 was spent from special accounts, including motor fuel tax funds, for a total of $131,118.

"From the size of the bill, it looks like we're spending a lot of money. I ask department heads to hold down expenses and not buy unless the price is right."

Many Tax Complaints

"We should watch our spending closely," Rutledge continued. "People are complaining of taxes, even though the city is to reduce its tax levy. We should all try to hold down expenses as much as possible."

With the $91,923 general fund disbursements in May, the May 31 balance for the 15 accounts was $34,622, with two of the accounts showing deficits. The city's receipts during the month amounted to $24,278 for general purposes, not including any new tax money now being collected for the 1959 tax year.

Utilization Of Harris Classrooms Explained

Plans call for locating two kindergarten classes, five first grade rooms, five second grade rooms and five third grade rooms in the new Harris school when it is opened this fall, it was learned this week from Madison School Supt. Wensel Brown.

With 17 of the 21 classrooms—two kindergartens and 19 other rooms—scheduled for immediate use, regular teachers will not be assigned initially to the other four rooms. However, three of the four will be utilized this fall, one as a science demonstration room, another as a music room and the third as an audio-visual room.

Bids Sought On Sealing School Painting, Paint

Sealed bids are being sought by the Granite City school district on sealing of blacktop areas, painting of Frohardt middle school, paint, brickwork at Emerson grade school, cash and shelving, first-aid supplies, lockers, asphalt tile and chairs. They are to be received by 4:30 p. m. Tuesday, June 28, and opened at the city board meeting at 7:30 that night.

Sealing work authorized for bidding so far consists of coating blacktop playground areas and tennis courts at Granite City high school. Installation of sealing material and chips on school driveways and parking areas also is being considered but has not yet been scheduled.

The Frohardt school painting is to be carried out by contract, and the paint to be obtained will be used by the district's regular painters and two additional painters at other school buildings. Costs are to be compared to help determine future policy on summer building improvements. Approximately $10,000 in exterior and interior painting work is planned this summer.

Improvements at 17 buildings have been authorized, with costs expected to top $40,000. Projects amounting to another $19,000 are under study and may be scheduled for July or August.

City Property Damaged

Damage to a parking meter and a street sign were reported to Granite City police Monday afternoon. A meter was knocked down in the 1800 block of Edison avenue and a street sign at 25th street and Washington avenue. The reports did not indicate how the damage was incurred.

SIU Board Ok's Contracts For Plan Of New Campus

The Southern Illinois University board of trustees has approved the general outlines of contracts for developing plans for the university's Southwest Illinois campus at Edwardsville.

Each contract will receive final approval when details are completed for each, since each contains a contingency agreement.

Architectural planning will be done by the St. Louis firm of Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, to be paid on a time basis with a total less than $100,000. SIU's plan calls for paying most of the cost out of the new campus share in the $105 million state educational buildings bond issue if it is approved by Illinois voters in November.

City planning and landscape architects Hare and Hare of Kansas City, Mo., will do zone planning on a similar time basis with total fees not to exceed $50,000.

Warren and Van Praag, engineers, Decatur, will do engineering planning on a payroll basis plus overhead costs with a top limit fee of $80,000.

SIU has set a maximum of the planning costs are contingent on the bond issue proposal.

Drivers Located After Fence, Auto Crashes

Two hit-and-run crashes reported to Venice police were solved Monday when the drivers were identified. In both cases, the motorist said the mishap occurred late at night and that he waited until daytime to contact the owner.

The auto that damaged a fence at the Wright residence, 1134 Douglas street, early June 18 was driven by Arvel Howard, 1130 Douglas, who agreed to pay for the damage, police said. A car that struck the parked auto of James Daniels, 124 Granville street, early Monday was driven by Robert Orasso, 225 (rear) Kerr street, he informed the police.

Robbery Charge Filed Against Hutchinson

A hearing is expected to be held in St. Louis this week for James Leon Hutchinson, 27, of 2737 Iowa street, who has been charged with first-degree robbery by the St. Louis circuit attorney's office. He has admitted holding up the Crown Finance Co., 3504 North Grand Blvd., June 9 and fleeing with over $600.

Hutchinson, unemployed, married and the father of two small children, has no previous record. Property bond is expected to be set at $5000, and the circuit attorney will seek hind-over to the grand jury when a hearing is held, it was learned Tuesday.

Hutchinson has been lodged in the St. Louis city jail since waiting extradition and being booked in St. Louis June 16.

St. Louis police found a witness who had obtained the license number of a car seen speeding away from the robbery scene. The registration was traced to the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Hutchinson, 1628 Market street, Madison, and Madison, and police learned that he had gone to visit relatives at Route One, Dover, Tenn.

Mrs. Hutchinson went to Dover to talk with her son, and he admitted the crime to her. A fugitive warrant was issued by St. Louis police after learning of the admission, but Hutchinson returned here and reported to the Madison police station at 7 p. m. June 18, admitting the robbery and agreeing to accompany St. Louis police to that city. He said he had been out of work for nine months.

A former assembly worker at McDonnell Aircraft Corp., St. Louis county, he bought an unloaded .22-caliber blank pistol for $5.95 in an East St. Louis pawn shop after walking by the finance company office and deciding that "it looked like an easy place." After the holdup, he threw the gun into water at Pontoon Beach, he related.

That we might be free. The precious privilege of freedom is a privilege we often too lightly acknowledge. To those in bondage it is a goal worth dying for. Christ died that we might be free. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John 8:36

Novel On Alaska Among Books At Venice Library

Miss Catherine McGee, librarian at the Venice public library, announced this week that new books now available include "Natalia" by Anne Miller Downes. It is the story of Alaska in 1887, the year of the Alaska purchase, and of love and pioneer adventure in an untamed land. In the story, Kirk Butlerfield, a Civil War veteran from New England, goes to Alaska to write a first-hand report on the land and its people which were almost completely unknown to Americans.

Tr. Siska, as the American army arrives and the Russians prepare to leave, he meets Natalia, the daughter of a once wealthy Russian. Although her father has already promised her to another man — rich and elderly — the young people fall in love. In the experienced hands of Anne Miller Downes, the story of their attempt to find happiness against great odds is described by reviewers as a vital, memorable one. Miss McGee said, adding that the novel holds a wealth of historical detail.

The "Silver Answer," by Marian Castle, is a novel about the Colorado boomtowns and Denver in the 1890s, which are the colorful, crowded backdrop to the dramatic story of a spirited lovely woman and her struggle to preserve her happy marriage to a courageous young minister. Miss McGee commented, "A whirlwind courtship brought Melissa Owen from her comfortable Denver home to a hotel room in a little mining town of Ouray."

There she watched helplessly as her dashing but increasingly unscrupulous husband gambled away their meager funds. Then came the mine explosion and they told her that Larry Owen was one of the eight men sealed in the mine. Melissa was left alone in a land both strange and undisciplined, with no means of support and the nagging fear that her husband's past misdeeds included murder.

At first tentatively and then wholeheartedly during anxious months while she worked at menial jobs, she looked to Duncan Mowery, the town's minister, for her source of strength. Then she discovered she loved the tall, rather obstinate young man and that he loved her. She married him, this time confident in the rightness of her choice. The book tells the story — the story of a dedicated minister who lived for new faith to conquer, and of his beautiful wife who gradually learned to appreciate the rewards as well as the sacrifices of a minister's lot.

Other new fiction includes: "Martha, Martha," a Biblical novel by Patricia McGee; "The Waters of Kronos" by Conrad Picotter; "Walls of Glass," short stories by Phyllis Borton; "A Distant Trumpet" by Paul Hargan; "Mama's Way" by Thorne Blum; "Cousins Known" by John O'Hara; and the "Lincoln Lords," by Cameron Hawley.

None-fiction at the Venice library includes "Women and Fatigue" by Dr. Marion Hillard; "A Treasury of Great American Speeches" by Charles Lums; "Roosevelt's Road to Russia" by George N. Crocker; "100 Indoor Plants" by A. C. Lertz; "Facts About the President" by Joseph N. Kane; "Return to Japan" by Elizabeth G. Vining; "This is Humphrey" by Michael Amrine; "Herbert Hoover" by Dorothy Horton McGee; "The Lifetime Reading Plan" by Clifton Fadiman; "Folk Medicine" by D. C. Jarvis; "The Real Nixon" by Bela Komitatz; "I Kid You Not" by Jack Paar; "How-To For the Home-Owner" by Marvin T. Forster; "John Foster Dulles" by Henry P. Van Dusen; "The Night They Burned the Mountain" by Thomas A. Dooley and "Queen Mary" by James Pope.
